R. Mary Hayden Lemmons,2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism s need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity s prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture

Queer Nuns Melissa M. Wilcox, 2018-05-22 An engaging look into the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence queer activists devoted to social justice The Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence make up an unlikely order of nuns Self described as twenty first century queer nuns the Sisters began in 1979 when three bored gay men donned retired Roman Catholic nuns habits and went for a stroll through San Francisco s gay Castro district The stunned and delighted responses they received prompted these already seasoned activists to consider whether the habits might have some use in social justice work and within a year they had constituted the new order Today with more than 83 houses on four different continents the Sisters offer health outreach support and at times protest on behalf of queer communities In Queer Nuns Melissa M Wilcox offers new insights into the role the Sisters play across queer culture and the religious landscape The Sisters both spoof nuns and argue quite seriously that they are nuns adopting an innovative approach the author refers to as serious parody Like any performance serious parody can either challenge or reinforce existing power dynamics and it often accomplishes both simultaneously The book demonstrates that through the use of this strategy the Sisters are able to offer an effective flexible and noteworthy approach to community based activism Serious parody ultimately has broader applications beyond its use by the Sisters Wilcox argues that serious parody offers potential uses and challenges in the efforts of activist groups to work within communities that are opposed and oppressed by culturally significant traditions and organizations as is the case with queer communities and the Roman Catholic Church This book opens the door to a new world of religion and social activism one which could be adapted to a range of political movements individual inclinations and community settings
