Jessie's Diary Jessie Whitmore, 2021-10-01 Jessie Whitmore who lived in Swanley in Kent in south east England was beautiful caring and had a wicked sense of humour The moment she walked into a room you knew she was there She had time for everyone young and old At the age of sixteen a week before her GCSE school exams Jessie was diagnosed with leukaemia She started taking oral medication and her doctor arranged for her to have IVF so her eggs could be saved as there was a chance she could be affected by chemotherapy Jessie bravely went through her treatment without seeking sympathy or undue attention She did her very best to have as normal a life as she could despite her illness After a while it became obvious unfortunately that the oral medication wasn't working Jessie was advised that she would at some point need to have a bone marrow transplant and intravenous chemotherapy Jessie chose to have the transplant as soon as she could and she started helping her medical team find a matching donor Finally a match was found On the June day in 2005 when Jessie was admitted to King's College Hospital London her aunt Debbie gave her a notebook and suggested to Jessie that she keep a diary as Jessie was going to be in hospital for about six weeks This book Jessie's Diary is what Jessie wrote The bone marrow transplant went well but the side effects of the chemotherapy that accompanied it were unfortunately too much for Jessie and this led to her death Jessie Whitmore was born on 30 June 1988 and died on 6 September 2005 at the age of seventeen Her mother Lorraine says It has been some time now since Jessie went but not a day goes by that I don't miss her and long just to hear her say e hello Mume

Science of Trapping Elmer Harry Kreps, 1909 Ex Libris Anne Fadiman, 2011-04-01 Perfectly balanced between humor and erudition Ex Libris establishes Anne Fadiman as one of our finest contemporary essayists Anne Fadiman is by her own admission the sort of person who learned about sex from her father's copy of Fanny Hill whose husband buys her 19 pounds of dusty books for her birthday and who once found herself poring over her roommate's 1974 Toyota Corolla manual because it was the only written material in the apartment that she had not read at least twice This witty collection of essays recounts a lifelong love affair with books and language For Fadiman as for many passionate readers the books she loves have become chapters in her own life story Writing with remarkable grace she revives the tradition of the well-crafted personal essay moving easily from anecdotes about Coleridge and Orwell to tales of her own pathologically literary family As someone who played at blocks with her father's 22 volume set of Trollope's My Ancestral Castles and who only really considered herself married when she and her husband had merged collections Marrying Libraries she is exquisitely well equipped to expand upon the art of inscriptions the perverse pleasures of compulsive proof-reading the allure of long words and the satisfactions of reading out loud There is even a foray into pure literary gluttony Charles Lamb liked buttered muffin crumbs between the leaves and Fadiman knows of more than one reader who literally consumes page corners
