Solo Para Mujeres For Women Only:

The Squatters' Movement in Europe Squatting Europe Kollektive, 2014-05-20 The Squatters Movement in Europe is the first definitive guide to squatting as an alternative to capitalism. It offers a unique insider's view on the movement, its ideals, actions, and ways of life. At a time of growing crisis in Europe with high unemployment, dwindling social housing, and declining living standards, squatting has become an increasingly popular option. The book is written by an activist scholar collective whose members have direct experience of squatting; many are still squatters today. There are contributions from the Netherlands, Spain, the USA, France, Italy, Germany, Switzerland, and the UK. In an age of austerity and precarity, this book shows what has been achieved by this resilient social movement, which holds lessons for policy makers, activists, and academics alike.

In Modern Bondage: Sex Trafficking in the Americas David Guinn, Elissa Steglich, 2021-10-25 In Modern Bondage: Sex Trafficking in the Americas presents the result of The International Human Rights Law Institute's recent trailblazing study. Based upon individual country reports from Belize, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, and Panama, the book also includes a regional overview highlighting the interplay and interrelationships between trafficking within an individual country and the larger Central American region. It identifies both existing problems in current efforts to confront trafficking and highlights the most successful efforts or best practices adopted by some of the countries. The report also includes recommendations on how to address the problem of sex trafficking. Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint.

Changing Women, Changing Nation Yajaira M. Padilla, 2012-06-14 Changing Women, Changing Nation explores the literary representations of women in Salvadoran and US Salvadoran narratives during the span of the last thirty years. This exploration covers Salvadoran texts produced during El Salvador's civil war (1980-1992) and the current postwar period, as well as US Salvadoran works of the last two decades that engage the topic of migration and second-generation ethnic incorporation into the United States. Rather than think of these two sets of texts as constituting separate literatures, Yajaira M. Padilla conceives of them as part of the same corpus, what she calls trans-Salvadoran narratives, works that dialogue with each other and draw attention to El Salvador's burgeoning transnational reality. Through depictions of women in trans-Salvadoran narratives, Padilla elucidates a story of female agency and nationhood that extends beyond El Salvador's national borders and imaginings.
