Just the Ticket David Terry,Osco Publishing, Permanent Revolution Richard Haese,2012-02-01 In 1961 the 22 year old Mike Brown joined the New Zealand artist Ross Crothall in an old terrace house in inner Sydney s Annandale Over the following two years the artists filled the house with a remarkable body of work Launched with an equally extraordinary exhibition the movement they called Imitation Realism introduced collage assemblage and installation to Australian art for the first time Laying the groundwork for a distinctive Australian postmodernism Imitation Realism was also the first Australian art movement to respond in a profound way to Aboriginal art and to the tribal art of New Guinea and the Pacific region By the mid 1960s Brown was already the most controversial figure in Australian art In 1963 a key work was thrown out of a major travelling exhibition for being overtly sexual a year later he publicly attacked Sydney artists and critics for having failed the test of integrity Finally in 1966 67 Brown became the only Australian artist to have been successfully prosecuted for obscenity Brown spent the last 28 years of his life in Melbourne where his reputation for radicalism and nonconformity was cemented with his multiplicity of styles exploration of themes of sexuality and transgressive commitment to the ideal of street art and graffiti Against a background of the counter culture and the social and political upheavals of the 1960s and 1970s Brown s art and remarkable life of personal and creative struggle is without parallel in Australian art Anthology Of Colonial Australian Romance Fiction Ken Gelder,Rachael Weaver,2010-04-01 The Anthology of Colonial Australian Romance Fiction collects captivating stories of love and passion longing and regret In these tales women arriving in the New World make decisions about relationships and marriage social conventions finances and career and even the future of the nation itself The slim and graceful Australian girl becomes a new character type independent self possessed and full of promise These stories also show women gaining experience about the world and the men around them They are put to the test by a new life and a new place And not every relationship works out well The best of colonial Australian romance fiction is collected in this anthology from writers such as Ada Cambridge Rosa Praed Francis Adams Henry Lawson Mura Leigh and many others Musical Maryland David K.
