Rowntree and the Marketing Revolution, 1862-1969 Robert Fitzgerald,1995-01-05 Rowntree and the Marketing Revolution 1862 1969 is a major study in the history of marketing in economic development in addition to being a history of a well known international company Marketing history remains a neglected field of study yet Rowntree s commercial success has been the direct result of applied marketing methods and major advances in product development branding and advertising It is surprising that marketing and mass consumption has been so neglected yet Rowntree was a marketing pioneer The company had in addition a prominent role in questioning managerial organization business culture industrial relations restrictive practices and multinational business This book offers a comprehensive account of a company and its industry but pursues themes and seeks to answer areas of debate illuminating the ways in which marketing contributed to the growth of an enterprise The Modern Plantation in the Third World Edgar Graham,Ingrid Floering,2024-02-01

Originally published in 1984 this was the first study to define and rationalise the character and functions of the plantation in the contemporary world The author Edgar Graham was uniquely placed to do this having had long experience of Unilever s plantations in West Africa Zaire Malaysia and the Pacific Writing as a pragmatist from observed fact his starting point was the fact that the modern plantation bears very little resemblance to that of the past on which most hostile accounts are still based Two changes altered the very nature of the issue First the 20th Century plantation existed within an economic framework controlled by independent governments Secondly the rapid development in technology has revolutionised most aspects of plantation production The result it is argued is that the modern plantation offers host governments the option of using this as the most efficient way of utilising available factors of production to provide a maximum social return Exemplified by case studies this study presents a powerful argument for the continue use of the plantation system when properly applied to a variety of tropical crops Look and Feel Harlan Walker,1994 Prospect Books 1994 Making Of burgeoning new media environment of Victorian London Paintings labelled as Social Realist by Luke Fildes Frank Holl and Hubert Herkomer are frequently considered to typify the sentimental Victorian genre painting that quickly became outdated with the development of modernism Yet this book argues that the paintings must be considered as the result of the new experiences of modernity the urban poverty that the paintings represent and most importantly the advent of the mass produced illustrated news Fildes Holl and Herkomer worked for The Graphic a publication launched in 1869 as a rival to the dominant Illustrated London News The artists illustrations which featured the growing problem of urban poverty became the basis for large scale paintings that provoked controversy among their contemporaries and later became known as Social Realism This first in depth study of The Graphic and Social Realism uses the approach of media archaeology to unearth the modernity of these works showing that they engaged with the changing notions of objectivity and immediacy that nineteenth century new media cultivated In doing so this book proposes an alternative trajectory for the development of modernism that allows for a richer understanding of nineteenth century visual culture
