Tunstall,2009-08-25 This book contends that Josiah Royce bequeathed to philosophy a novel idealism based on an ethico religious insight This insight became the basis for an idealistic personalism wherein the Real is the personal and a metaphysics of community is the most appropriate approach to metaphysics for personal beings especially in an often impersonal and technological intellectual climate The first part of the book traces how Royce constructed his idealistic personalism in response to criticisms made by George Holmes Howison That personalism is interpreted as an ethical and panentheistic one somewhat akin to Charles Hartshorne s process philosophy The second part investigates Royce s idealistic metaphysics in general and his ethico religious insight in particular In the course of these investigations the author examines how Royce s ethico religious insight could be strengthened by incorporating the philosophical theology of Dr Reverend Martin Luther King Jr and Emmanuel Levinas's ethical metaphysics. The author concludes by briefly exploring the possibility that Royce's progressive racial anti-essentialism is in fact a form of cultural antiblack racism and asks whether his cultural antiblack racism taints his ethico-religious insight. The Manufacturers of Literature George Justice, 2002-02. The book combines an examination of the network of material conditions of authorship and publishing during the century with literary readings in order to explore the mutually constitutive nature of literature, the material forces that influence its production and the social world of readers. BOOK JACKET Books in Series, 1985. Vols for 1980 issued in three parts. Series Authors and Titles. Women and War Jean Bethke Elshtain, 1995-07-15. Jean Elshtain examines how the myths of Man as Just Warrior and Woman as Beautiful Soul serve to recreate and secure women's social position as noncombatants and men's identity as warriors. Elshtain demonstrates how these myths are undermined by the reality of female bellicosity and sacrificial male love as well as the moral imperatives of just wars. American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R.
