Humphrey,David G Zimpfer,2007-12-18 The authors have done their homework in reading and consulting with the prominent literature especially regarding children All this effort gives the book a solid background foundation and makes it readable and well usable for both lay counsellors and professional providers and for all of us who are engaged in the delicate and rewarding endeavor of Grief Therapy Naji Abi Hashem Clinical Cultural Psychologist Berkeley California Praise for the First Edition The book provides an absorbing and challenging journey through the possible process involved in bereavement work and encourages one to think broadly about how one can approach a bereaved person this was a book I enjoyed reading very much and which I found both theoretically sound and practically helpful Bereavement Care Cruse Counselling for Grief and Bereavement Second Edition is a bestselling introductory guide for professionals who work with people experiencing bereavement through death and other forms of loss Focusing on practical assessment and intervention strategies Geraldine Humphrey and David Zimpfer guide readers through the essential theory and skills needed to work with clients in a way which sensitively facilitates the process of grief initiates healing and promotes a sense of growth Setting out the broad principles for practice the authors go on to show how these can be applied in working with individuals families and groups and in relation to specific issues including chronic and life threatening illnesses palliative care and complicated grief Carefully chosen case examples illustrate the counselling process while specific attention is paid throughout to ethical considerations and the possible need for referral This fully revised and updated Second Edition features a new chapter on working with children and adolescents both from the perspective of young people who are grieving losses and those who are receiving palliative care as patients While focusing on the practical the book provides a firm theoretical base by explaining key concepts such as attachment grief and resilience Geraldine M Humphrey is Counsellor in the Department of Psychology at the North Canton Medical Foundation specializing in death illnesses and non death and grief David G Zimpfer is former Director of the Cancer Center of Ohio

No Time to Say Goodbye Carla Fine,2011-05-11 Suicide would appear to be the last taboo Even incest is now discussed freely in popular media but the suicide of a loved one is still an act most people are unable to talk about or even admit to their closest family or friends This is just one of the many painful and paralyzing truths author Carla Fine discovered when her husband a successful young physician took his own life in December 1989 And being unable to speak openly and honestly about the cause of her pain made it all the more difficult for her to survive With No Time to Say Goodbye she brings suicide survival from the darkness into light speaking frankly about the overwhelming feelings of confusion guilt shame anger and loneliness that are shared by all survivors Fine draws on her own experience and on conversations with many other survivors as well as on the knowledge of counselors and mental health professionals She offers a strong helping hand and invaluable guidance to the vast numbers of family and friends who are left behind by the more than thirty thousand people who commit suicide each year struggling to make sense of an act that seems to them senseless and to pick up the pieces of their own shattered lives And perhaps most important for the first time in any book she allows survivors to see that they are not alone in their feelings of grief and despair Living, Dying, Grieving Dixie Dennis,2009 Taking a life education approach this resource offers helpful tips and techniques for mastering a fear of death suggests helpful ideas for taking care of the business of dying and encourages students to live longer by adding excitement into their lives Program Perspectives on Suicide Prevention ,1991 Death, Dying, and Bereavement Judith M.
