Suicide Biopsychosocial Approaches:

Suicide Alexander Botsis, Alexander J. Botsis, Constantin R. Soldatos, Costas N. Stefanis, 1997 Hardbound In recent years research into suicide has grown and significant advances have been made in clarifying the phenomenological and clinical profile of the potential suicide victim as well as in identifying some of the biological psychological and sociological risk factors for self destructive behavior The knowledge so far collated has shed light on many aspects of suicidal behavior and provides a sound ground in answering the question What leaves a person with no other choice but to terminate his life Obviously suicide represents a complex and multi factorial human behavior and as such raises a variety of theoretical clinical ethical and legal issues which can only be successfully addressed by concerted multi disciplinary research efforts The presentation in a book of such a multi faceted multi dimensional age long human enigma is a difficult task and a stimulating challenge This book is based on a selection of papers presented

The International Handbook of Suicide and Attempted Suicide Keith Hawton, Kees van Heeringen, 2000-11-21 Recent research in the area of suicidology has provided significant new insights in the epidemiological psychopathological and biological characteristics of suicidal behaviour The International Handbook of Suicide and Attempted Suicide is the first book to bring together this expertise and translate it into practical guidelines for those responsible for policy issues and for those involved in the treatment and prevention of suicidal behaviour Leading international authorities provide a truly comprehensive and research based reference to understanding treating and preventing suicidal behaviour They explore concepts and theories which best guide work within this field and detail key research which has supported conceptual developments preventive interventions and clinical treatment No self respecting worker in deliberate self harm and suicide prevention either clinical or research can afford to be without access to this comprehensive handbook possession and regular use may well become a marker of serious involvement in the subject This is the most comprehensive up to date informative and well written source of information on suicide and suicidal behaviour an invaluable work of reference which will be essential for clinicians and researchers for many years to come Andrew Sims Emeritus Professor of Psychiatry St James s University Hospital Leeds UK British Journal of Psychiatry

Psychotherapy with Suicidal People Antoon A. Leenaars, 2004-05-14 Almost a million people die by suicide every year WHO estimate The sheer numbers have made suicide prevention a major health target but effective prevention is not straightforward Suicide is a complex event more complex than most of us imagine calling for an equally complex response Psychotherapy with Suicidal People provides a multi component approach with rich clinical data including many case histories to guide the reader Based on decades of research from across the globe Antoon A Leenaars takes the reader into the mind of the suicidal person from the young to the elderly from the anonymous to the famous There is no better way to know and thus to treat a person A plethora of special features makes this volume an international classic and includes Reflections of many suicidologists such as Heraclitus Plato Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim and Edwin Shneidman A unique window on the clinical mind of the author Empirically supported definition with applications across age gender historical time as well as culture The report of the International Working Group on Ethical and Legal Issues in Suicidology Psychotherapy with Suicidal People A Person centred Approach is essential reading for clinical psychologists psychiatrists and their trainees and all clinicians who work with suicidal people Oxford Textbook of Suicidology and Suicide Prevention Danuta Wasserman,2021 Part of the authoritative Oxford Textbooks in Psychiatry series the new edition of the Oxford Textbook of Suicidology and Suicide Prevention remains a key text in the field of suicidology fully updated with new chapters devoted to major psychiatric disorders and their relation to suicide Suicide Prevention D. de Leo,Armin Schmidtke,René F.W. Diekstra,2007-05-08 Suicide Prevention A Holistic Approach contains the selected and edited papers that were presented during the congress Suicide Disease Disadvantage A Holistic Approach organized by the International Association for Suicide Prevention which was held in June 1995 in Venice Suicide prevention is still sadly neglected by governments and public health authorities despite the fact that in several Western countries suicide has become the primary cause of death among younger age groups The selected papers express the need for a holistic viewpoint in suicide management The subjects range from parasuicide to the role of the media from the special type of psychotherapeutic approach required to the most recent guidelines in pharmacological treatment from a homage to the memory of Erwin Ringel to the presentation of specific national prevention schemes The book will be of interest to public health workers doctors psychologists and social workers as well as voluntary staff and their organizations and to all those who make suicide prevention one of their primary interests Suicide Danuta Wasserman,2016 Suicide An unnecessary death examines the pharmacological psychotherapeutic and psychosocial measures adopted by psychiatrists GPs and other health care staff and emphasizes the need for a clearer psychodynamic understanding of the self if patients are to be successfully recognized diagnosed and treated Suicide in Children and Adolescents Robert A. King,Alan Apter,2003-08-28 In an epoch when rates of death and illness among the young have steadily decreased in the face of medical progress the persistently high rates of youth suicide and suicide attempts around the world remain a tragic irony and a challenge to both our clinical practice and theoretical understanding How can these deaths be prevented Can they be anticipated Are there perceptible patterns of risk and vulnerability What role do families gender culture and biology play What are the treatments for and outcomes of suicide attempters To address these questions experts from around the world in all areas of psychiatry from epidemiology neurobiology genetics and psychotherapy have brought together their current findings in Suicide in Children and Adolescents Working With Self Harm and Suicidal Behaviour Louise Doyle,Brian Keogh,Jean Morrissey,2015-03-04 Suicide and self harm are world wide public health issues that can have devastating effects on families friends and communities They are both a priority for anyone working in mental health social work emergency departments and related fields however suicidal and self harming behaviour can take place anywhere anytime it may be a pupil in a school an inmate
