Antigone Kefala

Summer Visit Three Novellas:

A Summer's Tour in Europe, in 1851 Aaron Smith Willington, 1852 After Cosmopolitanism Rosi Braidotti, Patrick Hanafin, Bolette Blaagaard, 2013 At a time when social and political reality seems to move away from the practice of cosmopolitanism whilst being in serious need of a new international framework to regulate global interaction what are the new definitions and practices of cosmopolitanism Including contributions from leading figures across the humanities and social sciences After Cosmopolitanism takes up this question as its central challenge Its core argument is the idea that our globalised condition forms the heart of contemporary cosmopolitan claims which do not refer to a transcendental ideal but are rather immanent to the material conditions of global interdependence But to what extent do emerging definitions of cosmopolitanism contribute to new representative democratic models of governance The present volume argues that a radical transformation of cosmopolitanism is already ongoing and that more effort is needed to take stock of transformations which are both necessary and possible To this end After Cosmopolitanism calls for an understanding of cosmopolitanism that is more attentive to the material reality of our social and political situation and less focused on linguistic analyses of its metaphorical implications It is the call for a cosmopolitanism that is also a cosmopolitics Late Journals Antigone Kefala, 2022-04-01 The last work by Antigone Kefala renowned for both her poetry and her prose one of the first writers to open Australian literature to a diversity of voices and of the most distinctive and powerful of those voices Late Journals completes a trilogy of works in which Kefala develops and expands her range as a memoirist beginning with Summer Visit 2003 and followed by Sydney Journals 2008 both published by Giramondo Kefala is not alone in writing in the journal form Beverly Farmer and Helen Garner are notable contemporaries but she is remarkable for the poetic resonance and intellectual significance she imparts to her observations Feeling acutely her position as an outsider because of her migrant background she nevertheless expresses a strong sense of community with the writers artists and thinkers who share her situation or have influenced her work The journals abound in portraits and tributes reflections on art and life and wonderful descriptions of places and landscapes which give full reign to her imagination and her ability to express the vitality and strangeness of the life around her Poetry Antigone Kefala, 2025-04-01 Poetry brings together all the published poems of the late Antigone Kefala one of the most distinctive voices in contemporary Australian literature Her mixed background in Romania Greece New Zealand and Australia gave her lyric poetry a unique richness and grace Her writing was informed by literary traditions that allowed her to achieve powerful effects by apparently simple means Her poems are carefully worked minimal yet resonant evocative in their use of implication and understatement startling in their imagery They confront loss and grief and displacement particularly as the consequences of war and migration They excoriate pretension They also express delight in the present moment in newly discovered forms of experience and nature Poetry includes all the poems in Kefala's six previous poetry books published over fifty years from The Alien 1973 and Thirsty Weather 1978 to European

Reading Greek

Australian Literature through the Paramythi Anna Dimitriou, 2024-06-04 This is a comparative textual analysis of a body of relatively neglected works by Greek Australian writers Dimitris Tsaloumas Antigone Kefala Stylianos Charkianakis Dean Kalimnios Christos Tsiolkas Fotini Epanomitis and Helen Koukoutsis The focus is on reading their texts as a bridge between multiculturalism and world literature given each writer identifies in various ways with peripheral cosmopolitanism as they merge high brow literary forms with the quotidian paramythi or the storytelling oral tradition The different ways they do this registers the writers ambivalent relationship with their origins through their transculturally mediated expression Discovering new possibilities in literary texts which have oral traces becomes a productive way to look at the question of translatability as posed by scholars of multiculturalism and world literature such as Sneja Gunew Emily Apter and Pheng Cheah

Patrimones George Kouvaros, 2024-07-02 Is a patrimony something we inherit or something we create Does it mark the continuation of the past or its disappearance Combining elements of criticism cultural history and memoir Patrimones addresses the questions How do we take from and give back to those who came before How have their actions and choices left their mark on us The instigation for these questions is an awareness of precariousness people places and histories on the brink This is what gives George Kouvaros's essays their sense of occasion and responsibility to those who came before and those still to come The outcome is a form of writing that is deeply moving and alert to the tension between survival and transformation preservation and appropriation that defines the engagements with our forebears
