Summerhouse Later Stories:

Summerhouse, Later Judith Hermann, 2003-04-01 In nine luminous stories of love and loss loneliness and hope Judith Hermann's stunning debut collection paints a vivid and poignant picture of a generation ready and anxious to turn their back on the past to risk uncertainty in search of a fresh if fragile equilibrium An international bestseller and translated into twelve languages Summerhouse Later heralds the arrival of one of Germany's most arresting new literary talents A restless man hopes to find permanence in the purchase of a summerhouse outside Berlin A young girl trapped in a paralyzing web of family stories and secrets finally manages to break free A granddaughter struggles to lay her grandmother's ghosts to rest A successful and simplistic artist becomes inexplicably obsessed with an elusive and strangely sinister young girl Against the backdrop of contemporary Berlin possibly Europe's most vibrant and exhilarating city Hermann's characters are as kaleidoscopic and extraordinary as their metropolis united mostly in a furious and dogged pursuit of the elusive specter of living in the moment They're people who in one way or another constantly challenge the madness of the modern world and whose dreams of transcending the ordinary for that narrow strip of sky over the rooftops are deeply felt and perfectly rendered Short Story Index, 2004 Poetic Stories and Allegories from the Summer House Daniel Parks, 2019-02-12 Poetic Stories and Allegories from the Summer House is a collection of poems and several short stories written by Daniel Parks I hope you will find the collection interesting and entertaining The Summer House Marcia Willett, 2025-06-25 For years Marcia Willett has touched readers with her poignant novels about the intricacies of friendship and family Now in The Summer House she explores the secrets that families keep and the decisions made in an instant that can change our lives Matt has always felt that there was something missing in his life His mother kept all his childhood memories in a small inlaid wooden box along with many photos of Matt as a child But something about these photos has always puzzled Matt Why doesn't he remember those clothes The toys And where in the photos is his sister Imogen Meanwhile Imogen is living with her husband and their baby in a rented cottage Ever since she was a child she has loved the Summer House a charming cottage on the grounds of a beautiful and ancient house in Exmoor When she has a chance to buy but her husband refuses to move Imogen begins to question the seemingly picturesque life she has built for herself Eventually the Summer House provides the key to the strange and tragic secret which has affected everyone involved Ulrike Draesner Karen Jane Leeder, Lyn Marven, 2022-12-19 Ulrike Draesner is a prize winning writer of novels short stories critical essays and poetry and one of the foremost authors in Germany today While a number of volumes have been published in German on her work the current Companion offers the first volume on Draesner in English capitalising on the interest in her work in Germany and further afield Introducing Draesner's major novels and short stories poetry collections and essays as well as giving an overview of existing research focusing on migration memory science gender and bodily experience chapters by international scholars in this volume also break new ground by focussing on visual culture poetology nature the posthuman and Draesner's reception of English literature and medieval culture A comprehensive bibliography commissioned interview and original writing by Draesner make the volume a valuable research tool for scholars and students This will become essential reading for all those interested in Draesner women s writing literature and history and contemporary German prose and poetry Hegel, Husserl and the Phenomenology of Historical Worlds Tanja Staehler, 2016-12-07 GWF Hegel famously described philosophy as its own time apprehended in thoughts reflecting a desire that we increasingly experience namely the desire to understand our complex and fast changing world But how can we philosophically describe the world we live in When Hegel attempted his systematic account of the historical world he needed to conceive of history as rational progress to allow for such description After the events of the twentieth century we are rightfully doubtful about such progress However in the twentieth century another German philosopher Edmund Husserl attempted a similar project when he realised that a philosophical account of our human experience requires attending to the historical world we live in According to Husserl the Western world is a world in crisis In this book Tanja Staehler explores how Husserl thus radicalises Hegel s philosophy by providing an account of historical movement as open Husserl s phenomenology allows thinking of historical worlds in the plural without hierarchy determined by ethics and aesthetics Staehler argues that through his radicalization of Hegel s philosophy Husserl provides us with a historical phenomenology and a coherent concept of a culture that points to the future for phenomenology as a philosophy that provides the methodological grounding for a variety of qualitative approaches in the humanities and social sciences Landscapes of Realism Svend Erik Larsen, Steen Bille Jørgensen, Margaret R. Higonnet, 2022-03-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two volume collaborative interdisciplinary investigation of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this second volume shows in its four core essays and twenty four case studies four major pathways through the landscapes of realism The psychological pathways focusing on emotion and memory the referential pathways highlighting the role of materiality the formal pathways demonstrating the dynamics of formal experiments and the geographical pathways exploring the worlding of realism through the encounters between European and non European languages from the nineteenth century to the present This volume is part of a book set which can be ordered at a special discount The Short Story in German in the Twenty-first Century Lyn Marven, Andrew Plowman, Kate Roy, 2020 Since the 1990s the short story has re emerged in the German speaking world as a vibrant literary genre This volume aims to establish a framework for further research into this rich field The introduction and six thematic chapters discuss theories of the short story form literary aesthetic questions and key trends in the twenty first century Seven chapters on significant literary figures from Germany Austria and Switzerland then offer a range of theoretical and thematic approaches to individual stories and collections Finally two original translations showcase contemporary short story writing in German
