Sun At Midday Tales Of A Mediterranean Family:

The Sun at Midday: Tales of a Mediterranean Family Gini Alhadeff, 2016-06-30 This astonishing memoir is the story of a family who always felt slightly foreign in every country and developed a chameleon like ability to adapt to their surroundings Gini Alhadeff was born in Alexandria Egypt and grew up in Cairo Khartoum Florence and Tokyo With a vivid gift for narrative Alhadeff evokes the languid Alexandria of the early decades of this century where her mother's family made its fortune in cotton and some of its beguiling honorary citizens a violet eyed aunt who refused to have new slipcovers made for her sofa so President Nasser would find the old ones when her house was impounded a cousin who was taught the limits of reason by Wittgenstein at Cambridge and became a Monsignor a gynecologist uncle interned at Auschwitz and then Buchenwald who lived to tell his tale with stark unsentimentality With a keen sense for both the comic and the tragic Alhadeff sizes up what is left of the family fortune a tendency to live beyond one's means the stories and legends that survive the rise and fall of families and the present as a paradise for those who having lost all have nothing to lose

The Schocken Book of Modern Sephardic Literature Ilan Stavans, 2010-02-10 The expulsion of the Jews from Spain in 1492 gave rise to a series of rich diverse diasporas that were interconnected through a common vision and joie de vivre The exodus took these Sephardim to other European countries to North Africa Asia Minor and South America and eventually to the American colonies In each community new literary and artistic forms grew out of the melding of their Judeo Spanish legacy with the cultures of their host countries and that process has continued to the present day This multilingual tradition brought with it both opportunities and challenges that will resonate within any contemporary culture the status of minorities within the larger society the tension between a civil democratic tradition and the anti-Semitism ready to undermine it and the opposing forces of religion and secularism Ilan Stavans has been described by The Washington Post as Latin America's liveliest and boldest critic and most innovative cultural enthusiast And the Forward calls him a maverick intellectual whose canonical work has already produced a whole array of marvels that are redefining Jewishness This new anthology contains fiction memoirs essays and poetry from twenty eight writers who span more than 150 years Included are Emma Lazarus's legendary poem The New Colossus inscribed on the pedestal of the Statue of Liberty the hypnotizing prose of Greece born Switzerland based Albert Cohen Nobel Prize winner Elias Canetti's ruminations on Europe before World War II Albert Memmi's identity quest as an Arab Jew in France Primo Levi's testimony on the Holocaust and A B Yehoshua's epic stories set in Israel today When read together these explorations offer an astonishingly incisive collective portrait of the other Jews Sephardim who long for la Espa a perdida their lost ancestral home even as they create a vibrant multifaceted literary tradition in exile

Jewish Libya Jacques Roumani, Judith Roumani, David Meghnagi, 2018-06-25 In June 2017 the Jews of Libya commemorated the jubilee of their complete exodus from this North African land in 1967 which began with a mass migration to Israel in 1948 49 Jews had resided in Libya since Phoenician times seventeen centuries before their encounter with the

Arab conquest in AD 644-646 Their disappearance from Libya like most other Jewish communities in North Africa and the Middle East led to their fragmentation across the globe as well as reconstitution in two major centers Israel and Italy Distinctive Libyan Jewish traditions and a broad cultural heritage have survived and prospered in different places in Israel and in Rome Italy where Libyan Jews are recognized for their vibrant contribution to Italian Jewry Nevertheless with the passage of time memories fade among the younger generations and multiple identities begin to overshadow those inherited over the centuries Capturing the essence of Libyan Jewish cultural heritage this anthology aims to reawaken and preserve the memories of this community Jewish Libya collects the work of scholars who explore the community's history its literature and dialect topography and cuisine and the difficult negotiation of trauma and memory In shedding new light on this now fragmented culture and society this collection commemorates and celebrates vital elements of Libyan Jewish heritage and encourages a lively intergenerational exchange among the many Jews of Libyan origin worldwide

The Last Transport Anthony McElligott, 2024-10-17 The deportation of 1,755 Jews from the islands of Rhodes and Cos in July 1944 shortly after the last deportation from Hungary was the last transport to leave Greece for Auschwitz and brought to a close the last significant phase of the genocide of Europe's Jews notwithstanding the death marches Within six weeks of their deportation the Germans were retreating from Greece and the Balkans as Hitler's empire shrank This last deportation is frequently acknowledged in Holocaust literature but its significance for our understanding of the Nazi genocide of the Jews remains largely overlooked The timing of the transport when it was clear to the German military elite that Nazi Germany had lost the war raises important questions in relation to long term ideological Nazi goals and the immediate contingency thrown up by war Anthony McElligott in this account of the last Greek transport of Jews to Auschwitz tells a compelling story of this previously underexplored event and sheds light on an important aspect of the Holocaust through an in depth study of one Eastern Mediterranean community

Tevye's Grandchildren Eleanor Mallet, 2010-04-01 In Tevye's Grandchildren Rediscovering a Jewish Identity Eleanor Mallet describes the unusual journey she took to understand her Jewish past Like many American Jews she was secular assimilated and part of the successful mainstream When her sons came of age they reached for a richer more open way of being Jewish Their interest sent her on an exploration in which she plunged into the dynamic and relatively recent field of Jewish history studied Hebrew and traveled to Israel and Germany Mallet's book provides a tour from a personal vantage of the historical forces that are in play for Jews today In it she connects the spare outline of her Jewish past with its fleshy fractured history Her Judaism had a passionate center which found expression in part in Israel Yet it was also filled with the dissonance that flowed from American assimilation and the Holocaust's aftermath These are the forces that have preoccupied the Jewish community for quite some time Understanding them has taken on a new urgency with the recent and not always welcome prominence Jewishness and Israel have on today's world stage

Memories of the Maghreb Adolfo Campoy-Cubillo, 2012-10-22 Using a cultural studies approach this book explores how the Spanish colonization of North Africa continues to haunt Spain's efforts to articulate a national identity that can accommodate both the country's diversity brought about by immigration from its old colonies and the postnational demands of its integration in the European Union

A Sephardi Sea Dario Miccoli, 2022-07-26 A Sephardi Sea tells the story of Jews from the southern shore of the Mediterranean who between the late 1940s and the mid 1960s migrated from their country of birth for Europe Israel and beyond It is a story that explores their contrasting memories of and feelings for a Sephardi Jewish world in North Africa and Egypt that is lost forever but whose echoes many still hear Surely some of these Jewish migrants were already familiar with their new countries of residence because of colonial ties or of Zionism and often spoke the language Why then was the act of leaving so painful and why more than fifty years afterward is its memory still so tangible Dario Miccoli examines how the memories of a bygone Sephardi Mediterranean world became preserved in three national contexts Israel France and Italy where the Jews of the Middle East and North Africa and their descendants migrated and nowadays live A Sephardi Sea explores how practices of memory and heritage making from the writing of novels and memoirs to the opening of museums and memorials the activities of heritage associations and state led celebrations has filled an identity vacuum in the three countries and helps the Jews from North Africa and Egypt to define their Jewishness in Europe and Israel today but also reinforce their connection to a vanished world now remembered with nostalgia affection and sadness
