The Difference Place Makes Gender Sexuality And Diaspora Identity:

The Difference Place Makes Angeletta K. M. Gourdine, 2002 Perspectives on the 'other America' Michael Niblett, Kerstin Oloff, 2009

Uniting critical writing on novels poetry painting and ritual this volume takes a regional approach to the cultures of the Caribbean Basin Ranging across the linguistic spectrum of the area it examines cultural production from the Anglophone Francophone and Hispanophone islands Suriname and the Guyanas and Latin and Central America The interdisciplinary nature of the collection and the challenge it poses to the balkanization of the region within academic discourse will make it of especial interest to students and scholars of the Caribbean Inspired by the category of the Other America as developed by douard Glissant the book offers a series of original and stimulating engagements with topics that include nationalism migration and exile landscape and the environment gender and sexuality and Postcolonial Studies and world literature In addition to contributions by leading scholars such as Peter Hulme Theo D haen and Lizabeth Paravisini Gebert it contains interviews with two renowned novelists from the region Lawrence Scott and Mayra Santos Febres Underpinning the collection is an interrogation of received ideas of the nation state and a suggestion that regionalism might provide a better optic through which to view the circum Caribbean that national consciousness in other words must always also be a regional consciousness

Gendering the African Diaspora Judith Ann-Marie Byfield, LaRay Denzer, Anthea Morrison, 2010 This volume builds on and extends current discussions of the construction of gendered identities and the networks through which men and women engage diaspora It considers the movement of people and ideas between the Caribbean and the Nigerian hinterland The contributions examine Africa in the Caribbean imaginary the way in which gender ideologies inform Caribbean men s and women s theoretical or real life engagement with the continent and the interactions and experiences of Caribbean travelers in Africa and Europe The contributions are linked as well through empire discussing different parts of the British Empire and allowing for the comparative examination of colonial policies and practices

Back cover Interpreting Homes in South Asian Literature Malashri Lal, Sukrita Paul Kumar, The search for the location in which the self is at home has been one of the primary projects of modern literature all over the world Interpreting Homes South Asian Literature attempts to map the narratives of the home in South Asian literature from the advance of modernity on the subcontinent till the present day It aims to read more than the domestic into representations of the home to explore not only the geographical but also the psychological and material connotations of home Its goal is to disassemble the concept of home in all its incarnations as confinement as stability as security as myth and as desire The book problematises home and its experience in different contexts It investigates if and how home changes its significations when articulated from different locations in different languages and by different subjects paying particular attention to ideological determinants like gender and class The editors of the anthology have encouraged contributors to also address diaspora writing and to achieve the widest possible comparative perspective Though the focus has been kept on literature some papers deal with cultural narratives of home in oral and folk mediums The collection comprises of an Introduction and 18 original essays divided into six thematic sections

Global Circuits of Blackness Jean Muteba Rahier, Percy C. Hintzen, Felipe Smith, 2022-08-15 Global Circuits of Blackness is a sophisticated analysis of the interlocking diasporic connections between Africa Europe the Caribbean and the Americas A diverse and gifted group of scholars delve into the contradictions of diasporic identity by examining at close range the encounters of different forms of blackness converging on the global scene Contributors examine the many ways blacks have been misrecognized in a variety of contexts They also explore how as a direct result of transnational networking and processes of friction blacks have deployed diasporic consciousness to interpellate forms of white supremacy that have naturalized black inferiority inhumanity and abjection Various essays document the antagonism between African Americans and Africans regarding heritage tourism in West Africa discuss the interaction between different forms of blackness in Toronto's Caribana Festival probe the impact of the Civil Rights movement in America on diasporic communities elsewhere and assess the anxiety about HIV and AIDS within black communities The volume demonstrates that diaspora is a floating revelation of black consciousness that brings together in a single space dimensions of difference in forms and content of representations practices and meanings of blackness Diaspora imposes considerable flexibility in what would otherwise be place bound fixities Contributors are Marlon M Bailey Jung Ran Forte Reena N Goldthrie Percy C Hintzen Lyndon Phillip Andrea Queeley Jean Muteba Rahier Stéphane Robolin and Felipe Smith

West African Women in the Diaspora Rose A. Sackeyfio, 2021-09-08 This book examines fictional works by women authors who have left their homes in West Africa and now live as members of the diaspora In recent years a compelling array of critically acclaimed fiction by women in the West African diaspora has shifted the direction of the African novel away from post colonial themes of nationhood decolonization and cultural authenticity and towards explorations of the fluid and shifting constructions of identity in transnational spaces Drawing on works by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Buchi Emecheta Ama Ata Aidoo Sefi Atta Chika Unigwe and Taiye Selassie this book interrogates the ways in which African diaspora women's fiction portrays the realities of otherness hybridity and marginalized existence of female subjects beyond Africa's borders Overall the book demonstrates that life in the diaspora is an uncharted journey of expanded opportunities along with paradoxical realities of otherness Providing a vivid and composite portrait of African women's experiences in the diasporic landscape this book will be of interest to researchers of migration and diaspora topics and African women's and world literature

Come Weep With Me Joyce C. Harte, 2021-02-19 This groundbreaking anthology represents the critical inquiry of literary scholars into the trope of loss and mourning in the work of women writers from the Caribbean archipelago There is a great deal of recent scholarly interest in the relationship of loss and mourning yet there are no books specifically devoted to an examination of this trope in the works of Caribbean women writers To fill this gap this collection of original essays examines subjects that encompass the brutality of slavery oppressive dictatorships AIDS and the catastrophe of the Mount Pele volcano that appear in the writings of women from the English Spanish and French speaking Caribbean It is an important addition to the contemporary discourse on loss and mourning The project is an exciting and vital one because it brings together a multiplicity of perspectives and critical approaches to examine the works of writers such as Jean Rhys Jamaica Kincaid Julia Alvarez and Maryse Condé What emerges is a complex portrait of loss mourning and remembrance that both enriches and challenges customary discourses of loss mourning and melancholia

Scenes of Intimacy Jennifer Cooke, 2013-03-14 Scenes of Intimacy analyzes the representation of acts and relationships of intimacy in contemporary literature the effect this has upon readers and the ways these representations resonate with complement and challenge the concerns of contemporary theory Opening with an in depth interview with literary critic Derridean and novelist Professor Nicholas Royle the volume contains eleven further essays that move from intimate scenes of familial and pedagogic legacy on to representations of love of sex and finally to scenes of death and dying The essays are textually attentive to how literary techniques create intimacy and draw upon new and notable theoretical positions and critics from queer theory affect studies psychoanalysis poststructuralism and deconstruction to ask difficult and uncomfortable questions about intimacy and its representation Across the genres of poetry autobiography journals love letters short stories and novels Scenes of Intimacy shows that contemporary literature poses new possibilities and questions about our intimate relationalities their failures and their futures

Queer Rebellion in the Novels of Michelle Cliff Kaisa Ilmonen, 2017-05-11 This book explores Jamaican American author Michelle Cliff's 1946-2016 literary rebellion against the colonial gendered and racist norms of Western Modernity It studies the sexualized circuits of the Atlantic world drawing on the fields of literary criticism feminist theories queer studies and Caribbean studies In order to do this the book develops the theoretical paradigm of intersectionality It also addresses the disturbing questions concerning the sexual politics of transatlantic modernity as represented in Cliff's novels Cliff's rebellious poetics envisions the colonial Caribbean past in new ways Her novels tell stories about Caribbean queer characters setting the queer as a site of postcolonial agency and as a perspective out of which colonial history can be re-written This book considers myths rites and cultural memory as sites of healing in the midst of colonial bodily politics Transnational histories identity and ethics emerge as intertwined in Cliff's feminist novels

Queering Straight Teachers Nelson M. Rodriguez, William F. Pinar, 2007 Much of the focus of anti homophobic anti heterosexist educational theory curriculum and pedagogy has examined the impact of homophobia and heterosexism on gay lesbian bisexual and transgender GLBT students and teachers Such a focus has provided numerous theoretical and pedagogical insights and has informed important changes in educational policy Queering Straight Teachers Discourse and Identity in Education remains deeply committed to the social justice project of improving the lives of GLBT students and teachers However in contrast with much of the previous scholarship Queering Straight Teachers shifts the focus from an analysis of the GLBT Other to a critical examination of what it might mean in theory and in practice to queer straight teachers and the implications this has for challenging institutionalized heteronormativity in education This book will be useful in courses on educational foundations curriculum studies multicultural education queer theory gay and lesbian studies and critical theory
