Our House ,2006-01-01 Space has emerged in recent years as a radical category in a range of related disciplines across the humanities Of the many possible applications of this new interest some of the most exciting and challenging have addressed the issue of domestic architecture and its function as a space for both the dramatisation and the negotiation of a cluster of highly salient issues concerning amongst other things belonging and exclusion fear and desire identity and difference Our House is a cross disciplinary collection of essays taking as its focus both the prospect and the possibility of the house This latter term is taken in its broadest possible resonance encompassing everything from the great houses so beloved of nineteenth century English novelists to the caravans and mobile homes of the latterday travelling community and all points in between The essays are written by a combination of established and emerging scholars working in a variety of scholarly disciplines including literary criticism sociology cultural studies history popular music and architecture No specific school or theory predominates although the work of two key figures Gaston Bachelard and Martin Heidegger is engaged throughout This collection engages with a number of key issues raised by the increasingly troubled relationship between the cultural built and natural environments in the contemporary world

The Dolls at Our House: Be'be's and Bears Diana Glissman,1986 The Doll's House Henrik Ibsen,1902 On the Doorposts of All Our Houses Donna Siegel,2010-10

Donna Siegel has written an engaging account of remarkable people our grandparents parents and their siblings Our family s immigrant experience mirrors those of an entire generation Recalled with poignancy and humor in these stories they all seem to live again Paul R Schulman author of Large Scale Policy Making and High Reliability Management Operating on the Edge with Emery Roe Memoirs have the power to bring the felt reality of the past to life This is what happens in Donna Siegel s On the Doorposts of All Our Houses Her memoir is fresh touching and full of pungent details This heartfelt and humorous memoir retrieves a precious piece of American Jewish history Emily Fox Gordon author of Mockingbird Years A Life in and Out of Therapy and Are you Happy A Childhood Remembered Two immigrant families escape from their anti Semitic homelands and journey to America They don t know a word of English yet they come here to establish a new and better life The family from Poland settles in Omaha Nebraska The Russian family puts down roots in Sioux City Iowa What happens next Donna Siegel tells how the two families connect and become her grandparents parents uncles and aunts She offers a whimsical account of growing up in the corn belt with her tightly knit Jewish family She confesses that her life doesn t exactly follow the plan Despite the piano and tap dancing lessons with which she was lavished Hollywood never needs a Jewish Shirley Temple She doesn t manage to grow long legs and become a beauty queen She does marry the prince but they don t live happily ever after Despite these disappointments she succeeds in converting lemons to limoncello Prepare to laugh and cry as you meander through the houses of Donna Siegel s life Our House in the Clouds Judy Blankenship,2013-04-04 While many baby boomers are downsizing to a simpler retirement lifestyle photographer and writer Judy Blankenship and her husband Michael Jenkins took a more challenging leap in deciding to build a house on the side of a mountain in southern Ecuador. They now live half the year in Cañar, an indigenous community they came to know in the early nineties when Blankenship taught photography there. They are the only extranjeros outsiders in this homely chilly town at 10,100 feet where every afternoon a spectacular mass of clouds rolls up from the river valley below and envelopes the town. In this absorbing memoir Blankenship tells the interwoven stories of building their house in the clouds and strengthening their ties to the community. Although she and Michael had spent considerable time in Cañar before deciding to move there, they still had much to learn about local customs as they navigated the process of building a house with traditional materials using a local architect and craftspeople. Likewise fulfilling their obligations as neighbors in a community based on reciprocity presented its own challenges and rewards. Blankenship writes vividly of the rituals of births, baptisms, marriages, festival days, and deaths that counterpoint her and Michael's solitary pursuits of reading, writing, listening to opera, playing chess, and cooking. Their story will appeal to anyone contemplating a second life as well as those seeking a deeper understanding of daily life in the developing world.

Vick's Magazine, 1985 The Doll's House Natasha Boydell, 2025-01-13

The BRAND NEW psychological thriller from Natasha Boydell. She lives in my old home, she looks like me, she dresses like me. And now she wants my life. Naomi is devastated when the sale of the apartment falls through; her dreams of moving to an amazing forever home nearby with her family are momentarily dashed. But then a sweet-natured single mother named Summer appears, announcing her intention to buy Naomi's old apartment. And all of a sudden it looks like Naomi might get her new house after all. At first it feels like Summer's saved her life. But as soon as the sale goes through, Summer starts turning up at Naomi's new house. She's enrolled her child in Naomi's daughter's class. She's dressing like Naomi. She's suddenly best friends with all her friends. And then Naomi discovers she's got a pretty little doll's house. One that looks just like Naomi's new home. Naomi wants to believe she's just imagining things. What could Summer possibly want? And how far will she go to take everything that Naomi has?
