The Double Witness Poems 1970 1976:

The Double Witness Ben Belitt, 2015-03-08 Ben Belitt writes This volume my fifth extends and deepens a preoccupation I have had with the visible and invisible manifestations of people places and things It offers a variety of poems of formal and textural density and in addition a system of doublings and solitudes whose oppositions express the drama of reality and appearance Originally published in 1978 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

First Nights Niall Campbell, 2016-11-08 The North American debut of an exciting new voice in British poetry The Scottish poet Niall Campbell's first book Moontide won the Edwin Morgan Poetry Prize the largest such prize in the United Kingdom was named the Saltire Scottish First Book of the Year and was shortlisted for both the Fenton Aldeburgh and Forward prizes for best first collection First Nights which includes all the poems in Moontide and sixteen new ones marks the North American debut of an exciting new voice in British poetry First Nights offers vivid descriptions of the natural world and the joy found in moments of quiet alongside intimate depictions of new parenthood Campbell grew up on the remote sparsely populated islands of South Uist and Eriskay in Scotland's Outer Hebrides and First Nights is filled with images of the islands seascapes myths wildlife and long dark winters But the poems widen beyond their immediate locations to include thoughts on sculpture and mythology Zola and Dostoevsky and life in English cities and French villages In the poems on early fatherhood the geography shifts from coastal stretches to bare dimly lit rooms Stripped back honest and immediate these poems capture moments of vulnerability when the only answer is to love Combining skilled storytelling precise language an allegiance to meter and form and a quiet musicality these poems resonate with silence and song mystery and wonder exploring ideas of companionship and withdrawal love and the stillness of solitude The result is a collection that promises to be a classic

The Ruined Elegance Fiona Sze-Lorrain, 2015-09-29 A lyrical collection that explores the interplay between poetry and history In her new collection Fiona Sze Lorrain offers a nuanced yet dynamic vision of humanity marked by perils surprises and the transcendence of a ruined elegance Through an intercultural journey that traces lives encounters exiles and memories from France America and Asia the poet explores a rich array of historical and literary allusions to European masters Asian sources and American influences With candor and humor each lyrical foray is sensitive to silence and experience I want to honor the invisible I'll use the fog to see white peaches There are haunting narratives from a World War II concentration camp the Stalinist Terror and a persecuted Tibet during the Cultural Revolution There are also poems that take as their point of departure writings paintings sketches photographs and music by Gu Cheng Giorgio Caproni Bonnard Hiroshige Gao Xingjian Kertész and Debussy among others Grounded in the sensual these poems probe existential questionings through inspirations from nature and the impermanent earth Described by the Los Angeles Review of Books as a high lyricist who refuses to resort to mere lyricism in order to articulate her experience Sze Lorrain renews her faith in music and poetic language by addressing the opposing aesthetics of ruins and elegance and how the experience of both defies judgment Flyover Country Austin

Smith,2018-10-02 A new collection about violence and the rural Midwest from a poet whose first book was hailed as memorable Stephanie Burt Yale Review and impressive Chicago Tribune Flyover Country is a powerful collection of poems about violence the violence we do to the land to animals to refugees to the people of distant countries and to one another Drawing on memories of his childhood on a dairy farm in Illinois Austin Smith explores the beauty and cruelty of rural life challenging the idea that the American Midwest is mere flyover country a place that deserves passing over At the same time the collection suggests that America itself has become a flyover country carrying out drone strikes and surveillance abroad locked in a state of perpetual war that Americans seem helpless to stop In these poems midwestern barns and farmhouses are linked to other lands and times as if by psychic tunnels A poem about a barn cat moving her kittens in the night because they have been discovered by a group of boys resonates with a poem about the house in Amsterdam where Anne Frank and her family hid from the Nazis A poem beginning with a boy on a farmhouse porch idly swatting flies ends with the image of people fleeing before a drone strike A poem about a barbwire fence suggests if only metaphorically the debate over immigration and borders Though at times a dark book the collection closes with a poem titled The Light at the End suggesting the possibility of redemption and forgiveness Building on Smith s reputation as an accessible and inventive poet with deep insights about rural America Flyover Country also draws profound connections between the Midwest and the wider world Radioactive Starlings Myronn Hardy,2017-09-26 From an award winning poet a collection that explores the complexities of transformation cultures and politics In Radioactive Starlings award winning poet Myronn Hardy explores the divergences between the natural world and technology asking what progress means when it destroys the places that sustain us Primarily set in North Africa and the Middle East but making frequent reference to the poet s native United States these poems reflect on loss beauty and dissent as well as memory and the contemporary world s relationship to the collective past Hardy imagines the Portuguese writer Fernando Pessoa as various starlings dwelling in New York City Lisbon Tunis and Johannesburg flying above these cities resting in ficus and sycamores and on church steeples and minarets Inhabiting the invented voices of Gwendolyn Brooks Bob Kaufman and Henry Ossawa Tanner the poems make references to Miles Davis Mahmoud Darwish Tamir Rice Ahmed Mohamed and Albert Camus and use forms such as ghazal villanelle pantoum and sonnet in addition to free lyricism Through all these voices and forms the questing starlings persist moving and observing and being observed by we who are planted on a crumbling ground A meditation on the complexities of transformation cultures and politics Radioactive Starlings is an important collection from a highly accomplished young poet The River

Twice Kathleen Graber, 2019-09-10 An impressive new collection from a poet whose previous book was a finalist for both the National Book Award and the National Book Critics Circle Award Taking its title from Heraclitus's most famous fragment The River Twice is an elegiac meditation on impermanence and change The world presented in these poems is a fluid one in which so much including space and time the subterranean realm of dreams and language itself seems protean as the speaker's previously familiar understanding of the self and the larger systems around it gives way Kathleen Graber's poems wander widely from the epistolary to the essayistic shuffling the remarkable and unremarkable flotsam of contemporary life One thought one memory one bit of news flows into the next Yet in a century devoted to exponentially increasing speed The River Twice unfolds at the slow pace of a river bend While the warm light of ideas and things flashes upon the surface that which endures remains elusive something glimpsed only for an instant before it is gone Before Our Eyes Eleanor

Wilner, 2019-09-17 A major new collection from the winner of the 2019 Frost Medal for distinguished lifetime achievement in poetry Before Our Eyes gathers more than thirty new poems by Eleanor Wilner along with representative selections from her seven previous books to present a major overview of her distinguished body of work A poet who engages with history in lyrical language Wilner creates worlds that reflect on and illuminate the actual one drawing on the power of communal myth and memory to transform them into agents of change In these poems well known figures step out of old texts to alter their stories and new figures arise out of the local air a girl with a fury of bees in her hair homesick statues that step down from their pedestals a bat cave whose altar bears a judgment on our worship of war and a frog whose spring waking invites our own In the process ancient myths are naturalized while nature is newly mythologized in the service of life Before Our Eyes features widely anthologized works such as Sarah's Choice and Reading the Bible Backwards In the new poems Wilner records the bewildering public shocks of the current moment when civic life is under threat when language itself is attacked and when poetry's lens of collective imagination becomes a way to resist falsity to seek meaning and to really see what is before our eyes Hosts and Guests Nate Klug, 2020-09-15 This collection is one of two manuscripts recently selected by

Susan Stewart for the Princeton Series of Contemporary Poets which is dedicated to publishing the best work of today's emerging and established poets We publish one to two titles per year at the sole discretion of the series editor The series began in 1975 with the publication of Sadness and Happiness Poems by Robert Pinsky and has published landmark collections by such poets as Ann Lauterbach and Jorie Graham Hosts and Guests is Nate Klug's second full length book of poems and the first with Princeton Taking the double meaning of hospes as both guest and host as its central theme this volume focuses on questions of different perspectives The title poem for instance depicts a set of parents visiting a newlywed couple and explores how the guest host relation shapes and transforms their perspectives of one another The volume also explores other guest host connections such as recognition and misrecognition greeting and farewell Klug's poems reflect on what it means to view the domestic and familiar through the lens of strangeness and estrangement cProvided by publisher

Syllabus of Errors Troy Jollimore, 2015-09-29 A new collection of poetry from the winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award we are fixed to perpetrate the species I meant perpetuate as if our duty were coupled with our terror As if beauty itself were but a syllabus of errors Troy Jollimore's first collection of poems won the National Book Critics Circle Award was hailed by the New York Times as a snappy entertaining book and led the San Francisco Chronicle to call him a new and exciting voice in American poetry And his critically acclaimed second collection expanded his reputation for poems that often take a playful approach to philosophical issues While the poems in Syllabus of Errors share recognizable concerns with those of Jollimore's first two books readers will also find a voice that has grown more urgent more vulnerable and more sensitive to both the inevitability of tragedy and the possibility of renewal Poems such as Ache and Echo The Black Capped Chickadees of Martha's Vineyard and When You Lift the Avocado to Your Mouth explore loss regret and the nature of beauty while the culminating long poem Vertigo is an elegy for a lost friend as well as a fantasia on death repetition and transcendence not to mention the poet's favorite Hitchcock film Ingeniously organized into sections that act as reflections on six quotations about birdsong these poems are themselves an answer to the question the poet asks in On Birdsong What would we say to the cardinal or jay given wings that could mimic their velocities Rain in Plural Fiona

Sze-Lorrain, 2020-09-29 The highly anticipated new collection from a poet whose previous book was a finalist for the Los Angeles Times Book Prize Rain in Plural is the much anticipated fourth collection of poetry by Fiona Sze-Lorrain who has been praised by The Rumpus as a master of musicality and enlightening allusions In the wholly original world of these new poems Sze-Lorrain addresses both private narratives and the overexposed discourse of the polis using silence and montage lyric and antilyric to envision what she calls creating between liberties With a moral precision embracing us without eschewing I she rethinks questions of citizenship the selections of sensory memory and by extension the tether of word and image to the actual She writes I accept the truth in newspapers by holding the murder of my friends against my chest To each weather forecast I give thanks merci for every outdated dusk dawn Agrippina the Younger Franz Kafka Bob Dylan a butoh performance an unnamed Raku tea bowl each has a place here Made whole by time and its alteration in timelessness synchrony coincidences and accidents Rain in Plural beautifully reveals an elegiac yet ever evolving inner life
