The Problem of Money Bernhard Bierlich, 2007-12-01 Based on long term medical anthropological research in northern Ghana the author analyses issues of health and healing of gender and of the control and use of money in a changing rural African setting He describes the culture of medical pluralism so typical for neo colonial states and people s choices of traditional local medicine plants and sacrifices Islamic medicine charms and various written solutions and modern therapy biomedicine in particular western pharmaceuticals He concludes that the rural urban divide is a fiction that demarcations between these areas are frequently blurred linked by a postcolonial capitalist discourse of local markets regional economies and national structures which frequently emerge in local African settings but often originate in global and multinational markets

The Winners' Circle Gail Bowen, 2018-07-10 Gail Bowen continues to enthrall with her masterfully compelling storytelling in Book 17 of her nationally bestselling Joanne Kilbourn series combining a modern urban family with a gripping satisfying mystery As Joanne Kilbourn Shreve her husband Zack and their soon to be seventeen year old daughter Taylor rush through the rain from their cottage to their car the Thanksgiving weekend they just spent at the lake with Zack s law partners is already slipping away burnished into memory as pleasantly as the hundreds of other weekends the Falconer Shreve families have shared at Lawyers Bay Thoughts of the weekend past will now focus on the future and be prefaced by the words next time Within weeks a triple homicide will rip apart the lives of those related to the lawyers who at the end of their first year in law school only half jokingly styled themselves The Winners Circle Dazed by grief Joanne will seek answers to an impossible question Why did they die The facts behind the suicide of Christopher Altieri known by his law partners as the conscience of The Winners Circle appear to provide insights but for Joanne those insights raise new unsettling questions Knitting this powerful narrative together is Joanne s unshakeable belief that the only thing worse than knowing is not knowing

Indigenous Knowledge and the Environment in Africa and North America David M. Gordon, Shepard Krech III, 2012-03-01 Indigenous knowledge has become a catchphrase in global struggles for environmental justice Yet indigenous knowledges are often viewed incorrectly as pure and primordial cultural artifacts This collection draws from African and North American cases to argue that the forms of knowledge identified as indigenous resulted from strategies to control environmental resources during and after colonial encounters At times indigenous knowledges represented a middle ground of intellectual exchanges between colonizers and colonized elsewhere indigenous knowledges were defined through conflict and struggle The authors demonstrate how people claimed that their hybrid forms of knowledge were communal religious and traditional as opposed to individualist secular and scientific which they associated with European colonialism Indigenous Knowledge and the Environment offers comparative and transnational insights that disturb romantic views of unchanging indigenous knowledges in harmony with the environment The result is a book that informs and complicates how indigenous knowledges can and should relate to environmental policy making Contributors David Bernstein Derick Fay Andrew H Fisher Karen Flint David M Gordon Paul Kelton Shepard Krech III Joshua Reid Parker Shipton Lance van Sittert Jacob Tropp James L A Webb Jr Marsha Weisiger
