The Book of Dialogue Lewis Turco, 2020-09. The Book of Dialogue is an invaluable resource for writers and students of narrative seeking to master the art of effective dialogue. The book will teach you how to use dialogue to lay the groundwork for events in a story, to balance dialogue with other story elements, to dramatize events through dialogue, and to strategically break up dialogue with other vital elements of your story in order to capture and hold a reader's or viewer's interest in the overall arc of the narrative. Writers will find Turco's classic an essential reference for crafting dialogue. Using dialogue to teach dialogue, Turco's chapters focus on narration, diction, speech, and genre dialogue. Through the Socratic dialogue method invented by Plato in his dialogues, outlining the teachings of Socrates, Turco provides an effective tool to teach effective discourse. He notes Plato wrote lies in order to tell the truth. That's what a fiction writer does and has always done. Now it's your turn.

The Cinematic Challenge: Filming Colonial America John P. Harty, Jr., 2016. Why did cinema largely ignore the colonial era and the Revolutionary War? The Cinematic Challenge asks this question and studies four films from the 1930s and 1940s to consider other queries such as: How did Darryl F. Zanuck make a film about the American Revolution, Drums Along the Mohawk, without indicating that the British were the enemy? Why was Northwest Passage never completed? How did Cecil B. DeMille begin production on a film, Unconquered, based on a book that did not yet exist? In addition, we'll learn how accurate the depictions of colonial life were in each film and whether the political and economic climate affected the finished products. Volume one of The Cinematic Challenge also includes information about the general state of the film industry during this period, technological advancements, and rival theories about historical filmmaking, making it the most in-depth resource available today on colonial movies.
