Max Stirner's Dialectical Egoism John F. Welsh,2010-09-23 Max Stirner 1806 1856 is recognized in the history of political thought because of his egoist classic The Ego and Its Own Stirner was a student of Hegel and a critic of the Young Hegelians and the emerging forms of socialist and communist thought in the 1840s Max Stirner's Dialectical Egoism A New Interpretation examines Stirner's thought as a critique of modernity by which he meant the domination of culture and politics by humanist ideology In Stirner's view humanity is the supreme being of modernity and humanism is the prevailing legitimization of social and political domination Welsh traces Stirner's thought from his early essays to The Ego and Its Own and Stirner's responses to his critics He also examines how Benjamin Tucker James L Walker and Dora Marsden applied Stirner's dialectical egoism to the analysis of a the transformations of capitalism b culture ethics and mass psychology and c feminism socialism and communism All three viewed Stirner as a champion of individuality against the collectivizing and homogenizing forces of the modern world Welsh also takes great care to dissociate Stirner's thought from that of the other great egoist critic of modernity Friedrich Nietzsche He argues that the similarities in the dissidence of Stirner and Nietzsche are superficial The book concludes with an interpretation of Stirner's thought as a form of dialectical egoism that includes a a multi tiered analysis of culture society and individuality b the basic principles of Stirner's view of the relationship between individuals and social organization and c the forms of critique he employs Stirner's critique of modernity is a significant contribution to the growing literature on libertarianism dialectical analysis and post modernism The Bloomsbury

Traveling with Skeptics Ken Ewell, 2009-11-20 Traveling with Skeptics is the much anticipated sequel to the critically acclaimed book Traveling with Philosophers However due to the authors honest and straightforward portrayal of the people of France he has incurred the wrath and condemnation of the French literary and intellectual establishment with many persons voicing harsh opinions as regards this unique and insightful work Insignificant writers cannot be crushed they lie too flat beneath the foot Honore de Balzac The art of writing is the art of discovering what you believe Clearly this most presumptuous writer believes in nothing Gustave Flaubert Since a person is never happy except at the price of some ignorance this writer must be the happiest man in the world Anatole France As soon as he ceased to be mad he became merely stupid As soon as he ceased to be stupid he became merely this writer Marcel Proust This author should be deconstructed with the aid of a guillotine Jacques Derrida There is but one truly philosophical problem and that is this authors suicide or murder Albert Camus If Hell is other people then this writer can go to Hell Jean Paul Sartre
