The Great Red Dragon, Or, The Master-key to Popery Antonio Gavin,1860 The Great Red Dragon Anthony Gavin,2015-07-14 Excerpt from The Great Red Dragon Or the Master Key to Popery When I first designed to publish the following sheets it was a matter of some doubt with me whether or no I should put my name to them for if I did I considered that I exposed myself to the malice of a great body of men who would endeavor on all occasions to injure me in my reputation and fortune if not in my life which last to say no more was no unnatural suspicion of a Spaniard and one in my case to entertain of some fiery zealots of the Church of Rome But on the other hand I foresaw that if I concealed my name a great part of the benefit intended to the public by this work might be lost For I have often observed as to books of this kind where facts only are related the truth of which in the greatest measure must depend on the credit of the relater that wherever the authors out of caution or fear have concealed themselves the event commonly has been that even the friends to the cause which the facts support give but a cold assent to them and the enemies reject them entirely as calumnies and forgeries without ever giving themselves the trouble of examining into the truth of that which the relater dares not openly avow On this account whatever the consequences may be I resolved to put my name to this and accordingly did so to the first proposals which were made for printing it But by this means I am at the same time obliged to say something in vindication of myself from several aspersions which I lie under and which indeed I have already in a great degree been a sufferer by in the opinion of many worthy gentlemen The first is that I never was a priest because I have not my letters of orders to produce This it must be confessed is a testimonial without which no one has a right or can expect to be regarded as a person of that character unless he has very convincing arguments to offer the world that in his circumstances no such thing could reasonably be expected from him and whether or no mine are such I leave the world to judge About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Complete Works of D. H. Lawrence D. H. Lawrence, 2023-11-09

D. H. Lawrence's The Complete Works of D. H. Lawrence serves as a monumental testament to his literary prowess and philosophical depth. This comprehensive collection encompasses a rich tapestry of novels, poems, essays, and plays, reflecting Lawrence's fervent examination of the human condition, sexuality, and the intricate relationships between individuals and nature. His modernist style, characterized by vivid imagery and psychological insight, immerses the reader in a world where emotional intensity and existential dilemmas abound, revealing the struggles inherent in society's conventions. Contextually, Lawrence emerges from the tumultuous early 20th century, a period marked by rapid societal changes and burgeoning existential thought that profoundly influenced his writing.

D. H. Lawrence (1885-1930) was a prominent English writer and controversial figure known for his avant-garde ideas and exploration of taboo themes. Growing up in the coal-mining district of Eastwood, Nottinghamshire, his experiences shaped his profound insight into class struggle, gender dynamics, and the conflicts between industrialization and nature. Lawrence's contentious views on morality and his quest for authenticity in human relationships often put him at odds with the prevailing norms of his time, thus coloring his literary output with a sense of urgency and risk. Readers seeking an exploration of the complexities of existence and the rawness of human emotions will find The Complete

Works of D H Lawrence indispensable This collection invites readers to delve into Lawrence's multifaceted world where every page presents a challenge to conventional thought and encourages a deeper understanding of the self and society As a seminal figure in modern literature Lawrence's works remain relevant today offering fresh insights into the timeless nature of human experience

The Secrets of Revelation Sekhar Reddy Vasa, 2017-01-31 Dear readers God had created Adam and had installed him as the guardian of the Garden of Eden and from his side bone he had created the woman Though Adam was not aware of the fruit of a tree that was pertinent to the destruction of humans which was existed in the garden itself God himself had informed Adam that the destruction of man would take place for sure through the eating of that fruit But Adam and Eve both were subjected to the preaching of the serpent they had consumed that forbidden fruit and had received death and the punishment from the God Later during the period of Noah God had chosen Noah and his family and had made them build the ark for one hundred and twenty years During that period through Noah God had revealed about the disastrous floods and the destruction of the world through that flood well in advance But there was not any repentance in the humans The result was the great disastrous floods Later during the period of Moses as God had intended to get the Israelis from the slavery he had chosen their leader Through Moses he had intimated about the destruction that was going to take place in Egypt to the Pharaoh the ruler and his province But the result was just the destruction Even though God had revealed them in advance about the destruction In this way God had been warning people about the upcoming destruction through the prophets well in advance The reason is his ambitioning that they would repent for their sins and would come into his protection The citizens of Nineveh are those who had given up their mistakes and had repentance These through the preaching of Jonah had realized their mistakes they repented for their sins and had received the protection of God In this way God himself had revealed about the deeds of destruction that he was about to perform through the preaching of the people that he had chosen and if they do not repent for their sins he had been destroying them Similarly Lord Christ has foretold about the incidents that are going to happen at the end of world to his beloved disciple John This would have been taken place two thousand years ago Those who had learnt all the incidents that would take place by the period of Doomsday from the period of Jesus Christ and had acquired repentance had been protected since then But those had not repented had not been sentenced yet But the treatise of Revelation is full of mysteries secrets and arcana The multitudes opine that this treatise is a tough nut to crack for the ordinary people God warns that the destruction is inevitable It is the ambition of God that each and every one must know the secrets of his coming because God is not the one who performs the deeds secretly He would reveal it well in advance through his prophets he would give them some time and if they do not acquire repentance he would destroy them As a part of that he had chosen us he had bestowed us the divine wisdom and instigated us to write in a simple way that each and every one would easily understand the secrets of revelation that explains the reason and the ways the world is going to end and through this book he is giving a warning to the citizen of the entire world So I plead you as the messenger of the Father Son and Holy Sprit to repent and live a life that is worthy of God Otherwise the end of world is inevitable inevitable inevitable Let the Grace of the Lord be with his servants Amen
