Babe Didrikson Susan E. Cayleff,2000-07-15 A gold medal Olympian Babe Didrikson was arguably the greatest athlete of the twentieth century excelling at every sport she tried running jumping javelin throwing swimming basketball golf and baseball to name just a few Gifted and controversial the Babe's athletic prowess and personality took the country by storm from the 1930s to the 1950s. Following the U.S. Women's soccer team's victory in 1999, Babe was mentioned repeatedly as a sports icon for female athletes everywhere. Her achievements, though vast, were cut short at age forty-three when she died from cancer, but Babe set the bar for every female athlete in her wake and opened the world's eyes to what one empowered woman can achieve. The Babe's biography will inspire young adult readers embracing the current surge of Girlpower who resonate with her quest for the American Dream, her efforts to compete in a male world, her battle to overcome discrimination against female athletes, and her struggle with identity. Author Susan Cayleff, whose adult biography of Babe Didrikson was nominated for the Pulitzer Prize, now brings Babe's rousing true life story to young women for whom she stands as a powerful role model. Greatest Sports Heroes of All Times Paul J. Christopher, Alicia Marie Smith, 2006-08. Hold it! You really think we can come up with 50 greatest sports heroes? Well, we can, and we have. Our heroes are not simply limited to the most popular spectator sports. On occasion, our heroes go back several generations, not just to the names in the papers or the sports talk shows. Who are they? Well, certainly Jordan Woods and Ming, but are you old enough to remember Max Schmeling or George Best? There are a lot more where they come from: skiers, cyclists, golfers, and runners, all the best and more. What did they do, and why are they great? The book offers a quick personal biography of each of our famous athletes, summary statistics of some of the most important successes, the good, the bad, and the ugly of their sports careers, why these individuals went on to influence their sport, and trivia questions to challenge your knowledge and more. The Fairway of Life Rand S. Marquardt, 2009-05. Fear of any kind is the number one enemy of all golfers, regardless of ball striking and shot-making capabilities. Jack Nicklaus: Golf is supposed to be fun. But many people who play don't see it that way. Many golfers, after having spent countless dollars and hours on the sport, find themselves having too many negative thoughts, limited beliefs, and other foolish self-sabotaging behaviors. Is there any hope to this kind of madness? I get so nervous and scared I end up choking and throwing up all over myself. I can't seem to control my demons. I get angry and often beat myself up. Sometimes I can't even hit the broadside of a barn. I never seem to get any better. Let renowned mental golf coach Rand Marquardt show you how he went from a frustrated, misaligned ten-handicap golfer to a more confident, connected one-handicap golfer in just one summer, and how you can do it too. Don't spend another day being angry, afraid, or frustrated again. Instead, learn to play golf more often in The Zone and how to harness and expand your inner wisdom by going with the flow. THE FAIRWAY OF LIFE Media Literacy in Action Renee Hobbs, 2024-10-14. There's never been a more important time for students to develop media literacy competencies. When students ask critical questions about the media they consume, they develop fundamental knowledge and critical thinking skills that prepare them for life work and meaningful citizenship. Media Literacy in Action addresses learners who are simultaneously active as both creators and consumers of media messages. At the same time, the book recognizes that everyone is vulnerable to media influence because of our dependence on the instant gratification and feelings of connectedness that digital platforms provide To thrive in a media saturated society people need to ask critical questions about what we watch see listen to read and use This book gives students those tools Key features of the second edition Critical examination of AI technologies algorithmic personalization data privacy and surveillance and the increased global regulation of digital platforms Attention to media literacy for empowerment and protection Inquiry oriented approach to learning that cultivates intellectual curiosity and creative expression Full color presentation with figures and photos to increase student engagement Each chapter includes Media Literacy Trailblazers Profiles of key thinkers and their theories connect students with the discipline of media literacy Media Literacy DISCOURSE NEW Visual representations of media literacy theoretical principles help learners internalize the practice of asking critical questions as they respond to specific media examples Learning in Action NEW Summary and vocabulary sections combine with Analyze Create Reflect and Act activities to empower students to apply ideas from each chapter Supplemental Materials available at www.mlaction.com Students can review key ideas learn about more Media Literacy Trailblazers and watch videos aligned with each chapter Instructors can access a Teacher's Guide of best practices in class activities homework and projects Also available are chapter summaries lecture slides YouTube playlists and test materials
