The Greek Mysteries Iconography Of Religions Section 17 Greece And Rome:

Dangerous Food Peter D. Gooch, 2006-01-01 Recognizing the social meaning of food and meals in Greco Roman culture and in particular the social meaning of idol food is an integral part of understanding the impact of Paul's instructions to the Christian community at Corinth regarding the consumption of idol food Shared meals were a central feature of social intercourse in Greco Roman culture Meals and food were markers of social status and participation at meals was the main means of establishing and maintaining social relations Participation in public rites and sharing the meals which ensued was a requirement of holding public office The social consequences of refusing to eat idol food would be extreme Christians might not attend weddings funerals celebrations in honour of birthdays or even formal banquets without encountering idol food In this extended reading of 1 Corinthians 8:1-11:1 Paul's response to the Corinthian Christians query concerning food offered to idols Gooch uses a social historical approach combining historical methods of source literary and redaction criticism and newer applications of anthropological and sociological methods to determine what idol food was and what it meant in that place at that time to eat or avoid it In opposition to a well entrenched scholarly consensus Gooch claims that although Paul had abandoned purity rules concerning food he would not abandon Judaism's cultural and religious understanding concerning idol food On the basis of his reconstruction of Paul's letter in which he urged the Corinthian Christians to avoid any food infected by non Christian rites Gooch argues that the Corinthians rejected Paul's instructions to avoid facing significant social liabilities Women in Classical Antiquity ,1983 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 The Chora of Metaponto 7 Joseph Coleman Carter, Keith Swift, 2018-02-14 The seventh volume in the Institute of Classical Archaeology's series on the rural countryside chora of Metaponto is a study of the Greek sanctuary at Pantanello The site is the first Greek rural sanctuary in southern Italy that has been fully excavated and exhaustively documented Its evidence a massive array of distinctive structural remains and 30 000 plus artifacts and ecofacts offers unparalleled insights into the development of extra urban cults in Magna Graecia from the seventh to the fourth centuries BC and the initiation rites that took place within the cults Of particular interest are the analyses of the well preserved botanical and faunal material which present the fullest record yet of Greek rural sacrificial offerings crops and the natural environment of southern Italy and the Greek world Excavations from 1974 to 2008 revealed three major phases of the sanctuary ranging from the Archaic to Early Hellenistic periods The structures include a natural spring as the earliest locus of the cult an artificial stream collecting basin for the spring's outflow Archaic and fourth century BC structures for ritual dining and other cult activities tantalizing evidence of a Late Archaic Doric temple atop the hill and a farmhouse and tile factory that postdate the sanctuary's destruction The extensive catalogs of material and special studies provide an invaluable opportunity to study the development of Greek material culture between the seventh and third centuries BC with particular emphasis on votive pottery and figurative terracotta plaques Temenos ,1999 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1979 Bibliographic Guide to theological messages By employing methodological approaches from religious studies classical studies and literary studies of supernatural horror fiction this book brings a fresh perspective to our understanding of how the Greeks viewed their gods and how poets helped to create that view Theologies of Fear in Early Greek Epic will be of interest to scholars in classical studies religious studies and comparative literature as well as students in courses on myth religion and Greek culture and society
