The Divine Human in the Scriptures (Classic Reprint) Tayler Lewis,2015-07-18 Excerpt from The Divine Human in the Scriptures A True faith in the Scriptures must have its strength in the Scriptures themselves This would seem to be a proposition of the clearest reason If the Bible be the word of God with a human voice then must it speak to the human soul directly as no other word no other voice can speak Too much have we relied on outward helps Not casting away then but leaving behind our Apologies for the Bible our Philosophies of the Bible our Reconciliations of the Bible with Science we should come directly to the Scriptures with the rational as well as reverent belief that if they are divine they must contain within themselves their own strong self evidencing power We would say to the young man disturbed with scepticism Read your Bible We would say to all who have difficulties which they honestly wish removed Study the Scriptures meditate therein by day and by night Nocturna versate manu versate diurna It is the only true and lasting cure of scepticism whether for an individual or an age It might be thought that there is some risk in the prescription and doubtless it may be so with its first effects for the difficulties and stumbling blocks may show themselves before the deep verities have begun to arrest and amaze the soul but let there be perseverance and the divine medicine will reveal its power the sun of righteousness will at length arise with healing in its wings About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works *Arcana Cœlestia. Yuen, 2014-05-16 I was and I am an ordinary theologian who does not have the Word of God at his disposal but at best a Doctrine of the Word of God writes Karl Barth in the preface of Die christliche Dogmatik im Entwurf Properly appreciating the complex career of Barth's characterization of what Scripture is theologically can open up constructive lines of inquiry regarding his self description as a theologian and reader of the Bible By mining Barth's published and posthumous theological and exegetical writings and sermons both well known materials and understudied writings such as the significant Das Schriftprinzip der reformierten Kirche lecture Alfred H Yuen offers a unique reading of Barth's thoughts on the person and work of the biblical writers by mapping his theological career as a university student a pastor a writer a young professor and above all a child of God CD I 1 464 65

Scripture in the Theologies of W. Pannenberg and D.G. Bloesch Frank M. Hasel, 2004-03-01 Scripture has always played an important role in Christian theology This study provides an issue oriented overview of the concepts of Scripture in Protestant theology from the 16th century Reformation onward It then sets forth the concepts of Scripture in the theologies of two contemporary systematic theologians W Pannenberg and D G Bloesch It analyzes compares and evaluates the theological and anthropological presuppositions that have influenced their concept of Scripture Despite fundamentally different starting points and other significant distinctions Pannenberg and Bloesch reveal surprising similarities This seems to suggest that for both the concept of Scripture is determined ultimately by presuppositions that are derived and shaped extra scripturam
