The Documentary Conscience Alan Rosenthal,1980 The documentary diaries Alan Rosenthal,2016-06-16 The documentary diaries offers piercing insights into the world of documentary filmmaking and will be essential reading for students and professionals alike Nonfiction Film Richard Barsam,1992-11-22 Richard Barsam has given us as comprehensive a study of the origins and development of the nonfiction mode in motion pictures as we are ever likely to have in one volume He draws on all the major written sources and many which are little known and he shares with us many eloquent descriptions of the films themselves giving us a valuable textbook Richard Dyer MacCann superb work Historical Journal of Film Radio and Television The Documentary Makers David A. Goldsmith,2003 A series of in their own words interviews with 15 directors whose work has in some way extended the boundary of the documentary They constitute a tiny proportion of those working in the field but they represent the state of the documentary across the world from the limited resources of China s only independent director with no access to his nation s television to the big budget series that attract tens of millions of American viewers Some will only work on film with all its paraphernalia of moviemaking while others insist on working alone with nothing more than a Handicam Some question even abhor the use of commentary others wouldn t dream of doing without Some work by the rules of cinema verite and some use dramatization while still labeling their work documentary Regardless of the where and the how they all seek to reproduce reality whatever that might be Book jacket

Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken,2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation Documenting the Documentary Barry Keith Grant,Jeannette Sloniowski,2013-12-16 Documenting the Documentary offers clear serious and insightful analyses of documentary films and is a welcome balance between theory and criticism abstract conceptualization and concrete analysis Documentary conscience (the); a casebook in film making A. Rosenthal,1980 The Film Business Ernest Betts,2023-10-13 First published in 1973 The Film Business makes a factual survey of British films from their beginnings in 1896 to 1972 Ernest Betts offers character studies of men who have built the film industry and made it what it is He examines the financial and political background and shows how while intending to encourage film production it has often had exactly the opposite effect and inhibited its free development Betts also attacks the manner in which the American film industry has taken over the British film industry and points to the failure of successive governments to save it from repeated crises and losses Through these fluctuations the author keeps a firm eye on the film itself and brings the judgement of film critics past and present to bear on British cinema as it moves uncertainly and not without its triumphs into the 1970s This is an interesting read for students and scholars of film studies British film history and British cinema For Documentary Dai Vaughan,1999-09-15 This collection of essays offers insights into documentary Stating that people may feel the word documentary had not justified its place in the dictionary if the films so called did not manifest some relationship with the world Beyond Document Charles Warren,1996-05-31 Critics and writers consider nonfiction film both as document and as creative work with strong artistic political and moral implications In essays by eleven of America s foremost writers critics and filmmakers Beyond Document explores the full spectrum of nonfiction film and its creative possibilities In addition to Charles Warren s broad introductory history of the genre the book takes a close look at ethnographic films cinema verit memoir and autobiography docudramas essay films and newsreels from classics like Night and Fog and Nanook of the North to more recent important work like Film about a Woman Who Harlan County U S A Sans Soleil and Forest of Bliss Representations of reality are increasingly contested in courtrooms and in Congress as well as in art Asking what the art of film can achieve Helene Keyssar considers the history of nonfiction films by women Jay Cantor discusses film investigations of the Holocaust Patricia Hampl looks at how autobiographical films render experience into narrative Robert Gardner questions the filmmaker s impulse to preserve and poet Susan Howe explores structures of mourning in several filmmakers All the book s essays provide deeply felt understanding of documentary film and of how we live with an d within images CONTRIBUTORS Jay Cantor Robert Gardener Patricia Hampl Maureen Howard Susan Howe Helene Keyssar Phillip Lopatte Vlada Petric William Rothman Charles Warren Eliot Weinberger
