

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a dark, narrow hallway. A bright, glowing light emanates from a doorway at the far end of the hallway. A person is seen running away from the viewer, towards the bright light. The person is silhouetted against the intense light. The overall mood is mysterious and suspenseful.

The Dreaming Detective:

The Dreaming Detective H. R. F. Keating, 2004-12-04 Who killed the preacher Harriet Martens is taken aback This is her first face to face meeting with the new Chief Constable and he shot the question at her the moment she took the seat in front of his desk Why is he setting out to antagonize her He must be talking about the famous Boy Preacher who was murdered there thirty or more years ago He s bringing it up now because the old hotel that was the scene of the crime is about to be torn down And he is giving Harriet the mystery to solve because he wants her out The media has made much of how young he is he has to establish himself and he doesn t want a much publicized female detective to steal any glory from him The preacher s murder has been unsolvable for more than thirty years Harriet s inevitable failure to solve it now will take care of her Harriet was still at school when the murder happened As she remembers there were six or seven people avid disciples in a position to have killed the wildly popular young figure But no one had ever been able to point out the killer or killers from that list How in the world could she do it now DNA the chief told her Find out whose DNA was on the boy s body and get the confession out of him Oh certainly easy as pie But Harriet has more than earned her title of The Hard Detective She is determined to turn the tables on the chief so determined that the case takes over her dreams And it is indeed a dream that pries open the door leading her to the answer She will certainly have her readers cheering her on and rejoicing with her when she manages to get her own back Keating s delicious detective now happily married and well set in her job will delight her many fans and bring many more

The Dreaming Detective H. R. F. Keating, 2016-12-20 Who killed the Preacher Harriet Martens is startled This is her first face to face meeting with the new fanatically determined Chief Constable of the Greater Birchester Police and he greets her with the question immediately Why is he setting out to antagonize her He is talking about the famous Boy Preacher the charismatic youth who was strangled in the empty ballroom of the city s Imperial Hotel in 1969 And he is giving Harriet the mystery to solve because he wants her out The case has been unsolvable for over 30 years and now she is tasked with making use of the latest DNA techniques to narrow down the list of suspects Harriet s inevitable failure to solve it now will take care of her But Harriet has more than earned her title of The Hard Detective She is determined to turn the tables on the chief so determined that the case takes over her dreams With a list of seven different suspects will Harriet be able to use her already proven skills to work out who had the motive to kill the wildly popular young figure before it is too late all the while trying to save her reputation and job from the efforts of the media and the new Chief Constable The Dreaming Detective is a gripping crime thriller from master of the genre H R F Keating Praise for H R F Keating Few if any contemporary writers are as entertaining as the remarkable H R F Keating Len Deighton One of the doyens of British crime writing Sunday Times Classic crime from a master of the genre Nottingham Evening Post Masterly as ever Times Literary Supplement Another first class mystery from one of the doyens of British crime writing Sunday Times Superior fare from a master Good Book Guide Few who pick up the latest offering from a master will be disappointed by the
