The Drifter High Adventure:

The Nation, 1919 Top Rated Fly Fishing Maurice Valerio, 1999 Hosts and Guests Valene L. Smith, 2012-06-13

Tourism one of the world's largest industries has long been appreciated for its economic benefits but in this volume tourism receives a unique systematic scrutiny as a medium for cultural exchange. Modern developments in technology and industry together with masterful advertising have created temporarily leisured people with the desire and the means to travel. They often in turn effect profound cultural change in the places they visit and the contributors to this work all attend to the impact these guests have on their hosts. In contrast to the dramatic economic transformations the social repercussions of tourism are subtle and often recognized only by the indigenous peoples themselves and by the anthropologists who have studied them before and after the introduction of tourism. The case studies in Hosts and Guests examine the five types of tourism: historical, cultural, ethnic, environmental, and recreational, and their impact on diverse societies over a broad geographical range.

American Accountant, 1928 Adventures of Perception Scott MacDonald, 2009-08-25 Over the past twenty five years Scott MacDonald's kaleidoscopic explorations of independent cinema have become the most important chronicle of avant garde and experimental film in the United States. In this collection of thematically related personal essays and conversations with filmmakers he takes us on a fascinating journey into many under explored territories of cinema. MacDonald illuminates topics including race and avant garde film, the political implications of the nature film, the inventive single shot films of the late 1960s and early 1970s, why men use pornography and what they are looking at when they do poetry, and the poetic in avant garde film. The widespread failure of film studies academicians to honor those who keep film exhibition alive and other topics. Several of the interviews: those with Korean filmmaker Gina Kim, French nature filmmakers Claude Nuridsany and Marie Perrenou, Microcosmos Canadian media artist Clive Holden, formalist conceptualist David Gatten, and New York's Film Forum director Karen Cooper are the first substantial conversations with these filmmakers available in English. Publisher's description Western Movie References in American Literature Henryk Hoffmann, 2012-10-19 References to western
