founder of new journalism This is a book that will be a sharp pleasure to reread years from now when it will bring back like a falcon in the sky of memory a whole world that is currently jetting and jazzing its way somewhere or other Newsweek In his first book The Kandy Kolored Tangerine Flake Streamline Baby 1965 Wolfe introduces us to the sixties to extravagant new styles of life that had nothing to do with the elite culture of the past

A Woman's Guide Anne Covey, 2020-07-22 Since the day God created Eve from Adam's rib men have ruled the world Even mothers and fathers treat sons differently than their daughters Boys get to do more things and when they do something wrong they're excused with sayings such as Boys will be boys Anne Covey grew up in such a household and in this book she takes a look at how chauvinistic men from all walks of life engage in shameful aggressive behavior to control women on a daily basis She also examines the Good Old Boys Club also known as the Old Boy Network Whatever you choose to call it this simple system in which wealthy men with the same social and educational background help each other never does anything good Find out what happens behind closed doors when men get together and how they continue to suppress and manipulate women in this guide to surviving and thriving while living in a man's world

Other Voices Everette Dennis, 2017-07-05 Conflicting journalistic voices that were raised in the past have become such a jumble that merely identifying them is difficult Dennis and Rivers define, categorize, present and examine the voices that contributed to what became known as the new media environment in the 1970s This new journalism came about as a result of dissatisfaction with existing values and standards of the early 1960s style of journalism The authors are comprehensive in their concerns as reflected in the national scope presented They cover developments in the major cities on both coasts in the Middle West and South in every major region of the United States Most of the research required travel and interviews all of it required reading almost endlessly and watching the video productions of journalists who built the structure of alternative television Dennis and Rivers offer a representative view of forms and media as well as the people who fashioned the new orientation The authors claim that the wrangling over objective and interpretative reporting misses the main point which is that neither is in close touch with reality The best objective report may cover all surfaces of an event the best interpretative report may explain all its meanings but both are bloodless a world away from the experience Color, flavor, atmosphere, the ultimate human meaning all these the new journalists contend are far beyond the reach of traditional models of journalism This is one of the central reasons for the emergence of different forms and practices in our time This volume will help younger scholars understand the sources of quasi-journalistic practices extant today including blogging and electronic only publications

Faculty of Color in the Health Professions Dena Hassouneh, 2017-12-05 This book provides the first in-depth examination of the experiences of a large sampling of faculty members of color in nursing, medicine, pharmacy and dentistry schools across the United States Anchoring her study in grounded theory Dena Hassouneh draws on extraordinary interviews with one hundred diverse faculty members together with rich contextual data to illuminate the deeply entrenched cultural and institutional challenges to equity that they
