The Workhouse System 1834-1929 M. A. Crowther, 2016-06-17 First published in 1981 Professor Crowther traces the history of the workhouse system from the Poor Law Amendment Act of 1834 to the Local Government Act of 1929 At their outset the large residential institutions were seen by the Poor Law Commissioners as a cure for nearly all social ills In fact these formidable impersonal prison like buildings housing all paupers under one roof became institutionalised places where routine came to be an end in itself In the early twentieth century some of the workhouses became hospitals or homes for the old or handicapped but many continued to form a residual service for those who needed long term care Crowther pays attention not only to the administrators but also to the inmates and their daily life She illustrates that the workhouse system was not simply a nineteenth century phenomenon but a forerunner of many of today s social institutions
