The Grand Adventure A Year By Year History Of Virginia:

The Grand Adventure James A. Crutchfield, 2005 The Oxford Guide to Library Research Thomas Mann, 2015 In this fourth edition of The Oxford Guide to Library Research Thomas Mann spells out the range of amazing resources available in research libraries that cannot be found on the Internet These include not only the tens of millions of books journals and other post 1923 printed sources that cannot be digitized because of copyright restrictions but a rich array of subscription databases in all subject areas that are not accessible on the open Web but are freely searchable via research libraries The Oxford Guide to Library Research provides scores of concrete examples drawn from the experience of a veteran reference librarian who has helped tens of thousands of researchers over three decades George Washington James A. Crutchfield, 2009-01-06 Between 1753 when he was commissioned as a major of Virginia militia and 1775 when the Second Continental Congress named him Commander in Chief of all colonial military forces George Washington rose from anonymity as a minor landowner and surveyor to become America's first national hero With little military training he led the thirteen fledgling colonies through six years of grueling war against formidable British forces steered the proceedings of the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia and served two terms as the first president of the United States His accomplishments were so stunning and he was so revered that by the end of the war some of his generals urged him to install himself as king an idea he looked upon with abhorrence calling the very thought painful Nor would he consider standing for a third term as president In this revealing book James Crutchfield writes of Washington as an enigmatic man No more elusive personality exists in history as an eminent Harvard historian observed His outward commonness concealed a quick analytic mind capable of learning from mistakes gauging his successes not on winning battles but on the effect his decisions would have on the future of his country Washington remains an American hero in every definition of the word Crutchfield says He was a man who rose above the political uncertainty of the infant United States to chart its destiny for two centuries into the future Cooperative Living , 2005 Teaching History in an Uncivilized World Philip Bigler, 2012-10-15 Teaching History in an Uncivilized World is the latest book by National Teacher of the Year Philip Bigler It is a fascinating chronicle of his 23 year odyssey as a high school history and humanities teacher Widely recognized for his innovative and exciting methods Bigler explains how as a novice teacher he discovered the power of using historical simulations to motivate students and to help them become active participants in their own learning These inspiring lessons proved highly effective in teaching important curricular content as President Bill Clinton would later acknowledge Through these historic simulations his students have learned lessons about democracy and the meaning of citizenship lessons we want every American to know Despite Bigler's success as a history teacher he was laid off twice early in his career due to school budgetary crises Growing frustrated and increasingly disillusioned Bigler eventually quit teaching and during this three year hiatus he received an advanced degree at the College of William and Mary and served as an Army historian at Arlington National Cemetery It was while working at Arlington that Bigler discovered that he missed the daily excitement of teaching history as well as the interaction with his students In 1985 he returned to the high school classroom a far wiser and better educator At BCC and McLean High Schools Bigler taught a variety of history courses and was actively involved in implementing the latest computer technology into his instruction As the yearbook advisor at McLean he aggressively upgraded the publication s limited computer resources and introduced the editors and staff to desktop publishing Widely respected by both staff and students Philip Bigler was twice selected by the McLean High School senior class as their most influential teacher and was chosen as the school s Teacher of the Year in 1996 In order to pursue his avid interest in the potential of educational technology to improve student learning Bigler transferred to Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology in the fall of 1996 There he was selected as the Fairfax County and the Virginia Teacher of the Year In 1998 Philip Bigler was named the National Teacher of the Year by President Bill Clinton who remarked We need more teachers like Philip Bigler in every classroom in America today for it is they who can make our schools the best in the world As the National Teacher of the Year Bigler was granted a one year sabbatical and traveled extensively speaking to various educational groups and organizations about the importance of teaching He persuasively argues that Civilization begins anew with each child and that if we fail to teach and educate our young people we are just one generation removed from barbarism Bigler advocates for a return of academic rigor to our nation s classrooms and the need for strong content standards Bigler has appeared as a featured guest on The Late Show with David Letterman Nightline and the History Channel Teaching History in an Uncivilized World is an essential book for all of those interested in improving the quality of American education It is highly readable and contains numerous useful appendices for history teachers The book is supported by a regularly updated website where additional educational resources and lesson plans are available Encyclopedia of U.S. Labor and Working-class History Eric Arnesen,2007 Publisher Description The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography Philip Alexander Bruce,William Glover Stanard,1910 Graphic Novels Michael Pawuk,David S.
