Days and Nights on the Grand Trunk Road Anthony Weller, 1997 Provides a travel narrative for a journey along one of the oldest and most perilous roads in the world through Pakistan and India The Grand Trunk Road, Khyber to Calcutta

John Wiles, 1972 The Great Trunk Road, 1972 Cultural Landscapes of South Asia Kapila Silva, Amita

Sinha, 2016-10-14 Winner of the Environmental Design Research Association's 2018 Achievement Award The pluralism of South Asia belies any singular reading of its heritage In spite of this diversity its cultural traditions retain certain attributes that are at their core South Asian in their capacity to self organize enact and reinvent cultural memories and in their ability to retain an intimate connection with nature and landscape This volume focuses on the notion of cultural landscape as a medium integrating multiple forms of heritage and points to a new paradigm for conservation practices in the South Asian context Even though the construct of cultural landscape has been accepted as a category of heritage its potent use in heritage management in general and within the South Asian context in particular has not been widely studied The volume challenges the prevalent views of heritage management in South Asia that are entrenched in colonial legacies and contemporary global policy frameworks

Geography of the South Asian Subcontinent Aijazuddin Ahmad, 2009 This book attempts to explore the possibility of discovering the roots of unity of the South Asian countries Describing the nations nationalities and nationalism in Afghanistan Pakistan Bangladesh Nepal Bhutan Sri Lanka Maldives and India It makes a comprehensive study of their geographical features shared history and political evolution Taking a close look at their shifting identities it also presents a detailed account of their society and social formations ethnic antecedents race and caste regions and regionalism culture realms languages and economic as well as human development

The New Expatriates Anne-Meike Fechter, Katie Walsh, 2013-09-13 While scholarship on migration has been thriving for decades little attention has been paid to professionals from Europe and America who move temporarily to destinations beyond the West Such migrants are marginalised and depoliticised by debates on immigration policy and thus there is an urgent need to develop nuanced understanding of these more privileged movements In many ways these are the modern day equivalents of colonial settlers and expatriates yet the continuities in their migration practices have rarely been considered The New Expatriates advances our understanding of contemporary mobile professionals by engaging with postcolonial theories of race culture and identity The volume brings together authors and research from across a wide range of disciplines seeking to evaluate the significance of the past in shaping contemporary expatriate mobilities and highlighting postcolonial continuities in relation to people practices and imaginations Acknowledging the resonances across a range of geographical sites in Asia Africa and the Middle East the chapters consider the particularity of postcolonial contexts while enabling comparative perspectives A focus on race and culture is often obscured by assumptions about class occupation and skill but this volume explicitly examines the way in which whiteness and imperial relationships continue to shape the migration experiences of Euro American skilled migrants as they seek out new places to live and work This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies
