Shadows on the Grave Richard Corben, 2018-01-30 Richard Corben follows up 2014's Spirits of the Dead with a new collection of original short stories ranging from gothic tales worthy of Poe to Twilight Zone style encounters with the weird to a full-length fantasy epic featuring a barbarian reminiscent of Corben's most notorious creation, Den, immortalized in the 1981 animated film Heavy Metal. Corben rose to prominence with short horror and science fiction stories in the early 1970s in Creepy and Eerie, which were later collected in Creepy Presents. Richard Corben remains one of the most important voices in horror comics. Geological Survey Water-supply Paper, 1951 Reading Life with Gwich'in Jan Peter Laurens Loovers, 2019-12-10 This book is based upon more than two years of ethnographic fieldwork and personal experiences with the Teet it Gwich'in community in northern Canada. The author provides insight into Gwich'in understandings of life as well as into historical and political processes that have taken place in the North. He outlines the development of an educational approach towards conducting ethnography and writing anthropological literature, starting with the premise you have to live it. The book focuses on ways of knowing and collaboration through learning and being taught by interlocutors. Building on the work of Tim Ingold, Loovers investigates the notion of reading life, land, water, and weather as well as texts and analyses the reading of texts as acts of conversations or correspondences.

The Challenge of Africa K. A. Busia, 2023-05-08 In the mid-twentieth century, the challenges raised by Africa's emergence into the modern world touched on every aspect of national and international life One of the most significant was raised by Africa's quest for her own culture encompassing not only the heritage of her distant and mysterious past but also the most recent developments in her history In The Challenge of Africa originally published in 1962 reissued here with a new introduction the foremost African sociologist of the time offers a constructive humanitarian and genuinely democratic approach to the problems Africa faced in this search Professor Busia discusses the political educational and economic challenges inherent in the very nature of modern African nationalism But he argues the basic challenge is moral to maintain and adapt the social and spiritual heritage that Africa has preserved throughout her history It is in the light of this challenge that he analyses the moral problems posed by Africa's entry into the modern international community the demand for the resolution of the race relations problem the insistence that the injustice of colonial systems be erased the challenge to provide right and just governments for the peoples of Africa the claim to cultural freedom In the international context African nationalism not only represents moral indignation against injustice and wrong it is also a claim for equality All nations must share in building a peaceful world community and this requires the cooperation of all races Lastly Professor Busia contends if East and West joined together to serve the needs of Africa they might in cooperation rediscover their own brotherhood and so save humanity Purple Bottom City Blanche
