Stephen Leacock Grey Owl and Morley Callaghan these treasured Canadian books and authors were all nurtured by the Macmillan Company of Canada one of the country's foremost twentieth century publishing houses The Literary Legacy of the Macmillan Company of Canada is a unique look at the contribution of publishers and editors to the formation of the Canadian literary canon Ruth Panofsky's study begins in 1905 with the establishment of Macmillan Canada as a branch plant to the company's London office While concentrating on the firm's original trade publishing which had considerable cultural influence Panofsky underscores the fundamental importance of educational titles to Macmillan's financial profile The Literary Legacy of the Macmillan Company of Canada also illuminates the key individuals including Hugh Eayrs John Gray and Hugh Kane whose personalities were as fascinating as those of the authors they published and whose achievements helped to advance modern literature in Canada Publisher's website Maskepetoon Hugh A. Dempsey,2011-02-01 As a leader Maskepetoon was respected for his skill as a hunter his generosity and his wisdom He was considered a lucky chief a man who found buffalo on the edge of the plains who avoided unnecessary conflicts with enemies but protected his camp like a mother grizzly her cubs And in the turbulent mid 1800s that's exactly the kind of leader the Rocky Mountain Cree needed Maskepetoon followed his own inclinations for peace and friendship He formed allegiances with missionaries and guided settlers through the Rockies Yet if necessary he could kill with impunity rule with an iron hand and show no mercy where he believed none should be shown He transformed his people from woodland trappers to buffalo hunters and from woodsmen to prairie dwellers always keeping their interests at heart Hugh A Dempsey's account of the legendary chief and his life includes insights from the Cree people of today including descendants of Maskepetoon and new information on the chief of the same name who lived in the United States during this time The Western Cree MASKI PITON'S BAND (Maskepetoon, Broken Arm) of PLAINS CREE v.1 to 1870 Joachim Fromhold,2015-05-04 MASKI PITON or Broken Arm is perhaps the best known or best publicised Cree Indian Chief and has had more written about him than any other Chief or historic aboriginal person in Alberta In spite of this virtually nothing has been written about or is known about his band of the Plains Cree Much that is known and has been written about him is incomplete and woefully lacking not having been satisfactorily researched In fact the band ranged through a large area from the mountains of the North Saskatchewan to northern Minnesota In fact as it turns out MASKI PITON's band is one of the best documented of the Plains Cree bands and once we combine the records from Canada and the United States we are able to reconstruct a very accurate record of the history of the band This is the history of the Band from its early origins to the reservation period and is the first documentation of the range of the Plains
