The Book at War Andrew Pettegree,2023-12-05 A magisterial Sunday Times history of how books were used in war across the twentieth century both as weapons and as agents for peace We tend not to talk about books and war in the same breath one ranks among humanity s greatest inventions the other among its most terrible But as esteemed literary historian Andrew Pettegree demonstrates the two are deeply intertwined The Book at War explores the various roles that books have played in conflicts throughout the globe Winston Churchill used a travel guide to plan the invasion of Norway lonely families turned to libraries while their loved ones were fighting in the trenches and during the Cold War both sides used books to spread their visions of how the world should be run As solace or instruction manual as critique or propaganda books have shaped modern military history for both good and ill With precise historical analysis and sparkling prose The Book at War accounts for the power and the ambivalence of words at war Armed Forces ,1982 Architecture after God Kyle Dugdale,2022-12-19 Architecture after God A vivid retelling of the biblical story of Babel leads from the contested site of Babylon to the soaring towers of the modern metropolis and sets the bright hopes of early modernism against the shadows of gathering war Dealing in structural metaphor utopian aspiration and geopolitical ambition Dugdale exposes the inexorable architectural implications of the event described by Nietzsche as the death of God The Exploring Architecture series makes architectural scholarship accessible introduces the latest research methods and covers a wide range of periods regions and topics Critical reappraisal of early modernism Based on the fable The Emperor and the Architect 1924 by Uriel Birnbaum New volume in the Exploring Architecture series Library Journal ,2002 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately From Versailles to Pearl Harbor Margaret Lamb,Nicholas Tarling,2017-03-14 In 1941 the European war became a world war This book tackles that process in its economic political and ideological dimensions Margaret Lamb and Nicholas Tarling explore the significance of the Asian factor and the importance of East Asia in the making of the war in Europe and the transformation of the European war of 1939 into the world war of 1941 This Asian factor has often been neglected but the policies of all the major powers were affected by their world wide interests France had its possessions in North Africa and Asia Nazi Germany chose to become involved in China and to make an agreement with Japan Britain's action in Europe and the Mediterranean were conditioned by its commitments elsewhere in the world and the United States and the Soviet Union were both involved in Europe and Asia In particular the threat that Japan presented to the status quo in East Asia made it difficult for the war in Europe in turn affected the position in East Asia The US built a two ocean navy and encouraged the British to continue their struggle by keeping the resources of South East Asia available and these steps led to a clash with the Japanese Lamb and Tarling's global approach throws valuable new light on the origins of the Second World War Archives ,2003 Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture John Sandford,2013-04-03 Pre and post unification culture Includes Austria and Switzerland Annotated suggestions for further reading English and German language works The New York Times Book Review ,1988-07 Handbook of Polish, Czech, and Slovak Holocaust Fiction Elisa-Maria Hiemer,Jiří Holý,Agata Firlej,Hana Nichtburgerová,2021-06-21 The Handbook of Polish Czech and Slovak Holocaust Fiction aims to increase the visibility and show the versatility of works from East Central European countries It is the first encyclopedic work to bridge the gap between the literary production of countries that are considered to be main sites of the Holocaust and their recognition in international academic and public discourse It contains over 100 entries offering not only facts about the content and motifs but also pointing out the characteristic fictional features of each work and its meaning for academic discourse and wider reception in the country of origin and abroad The publication will appeal to the academic and broader public interested in the representation of the Holocaust anti-Semitism and World War II in literature and the arts Besides prose it also considers poetry and theatrical plays from 1943 through 2018 An introduction to the historical events and cultural developments in Poland Czechoslovakia Czech and Slovak Republic and their impact on the artistic output helps to contextualise the motif changes and fictional strategies that authors have been applying for decades The publication is the result of long term scholarly cooperation of specialists from four countries and several dozen academic centres
