and the harsh realities of their environments This collection showcases his mastery of historical fiction particularly in works like The Young Trailers which not only entertain but also educate readers about American history ideals and the complexities of frontier life Joseph Alexander Altsheler 1862 1919 was an influential writer whose works resonate with themes of courage nationalism and the American spirit His upbringing in a period marked by rapid industrialization and the evolution of personal identity inspired him to explore the notion of heroism in an ever changing world Having honed his skills as a journalist Altsheler s storytelling reflects both a deep understanding of human nature and an appreciation for the historical narratives that shape our identity This collection is highly recommended for both young readers and history enthusiasts who wish to engage with the thrilling and formative eras of America s past Altsheler s relatable characters and imaginative settings not only stimulate the imagination but also serve as a window into the values of courage and integrity that transcend time making it an essential addition to any literary canon

Oral Patterns of Performance Barre Toelken, 2015-02-15 To many Native American cultures songs and stories are dramatic enactments of reality and words bring reality into existence In this chapter from his award winning book The Anguish of Snails Toelken thoughtfully approaches a number of stories from Native American traditions discussing how narratives can be touchstones of shared values among closely associated traditional people and how songs and stories go far beyond an evening s entertainment or lessons about life A traditional narrative can be a culturally structured way of thinking and of experiencing the patterns that make culture real

The Bear Family At Home, And How The Circus Came To Visit Curtis D. Wilbur, 2022-10-13 Excerpt Once a little cub bear was caught in a big log trap and taken on a train to a circus He lived in the circus a long long while and every day a great many people came to see the bear and the lions and the tigers and the leopards and the elephants and the camels and the other animals Every night the animals would all be put in the wagons made for them then the wagons would be rolled on the flat cars of a railroad train The train would go all night to another town where a great many people would come to see the animals and the men and women in the circus The Cub Bear saw a great many wonderful and strange things while he was in the circus and while traveling on the trains Once he crossed the ocean in a great ship and came back again in another ship
