A Cultural History of Color in the Age of Industry
 Alexandra Loske, 2022-08-31 A Cultural History of Color in the Age of Industry covers the period 1800 to 1920 when the world embraced color like never before. Inventions such as steam power, lithography, photography, electricity, motor cars, aviation, and cheaper color printing all contributed to a new exuberance about color. Available pigments and colored products made possible by new technologies, industrial manufacturing, commercialization, and urbanization also greatly increased as did illustrated printed literature for the mass market. Color both literally and metaphorically was splashed around and became an expressive tool for artists, designers, and writers. Color shapes an individual's experience of the world and also how society gives particular spaces, objects, and moments meaning. The 6 volume set of the Cultural History of Color examines how color has been created, traded, used, and interpreted over the last 5000 years. The themes covered in each volume are color philosophy and science, color technology and trade, power and identity, religion and ritual, body and clothing, language and psychology, literature and the performing arts, art, architecture and interiors, and artefacts. Alexandra Loske is Curator at the Royal Pavilion and Museums, Brighton, UK. Volume 5 in the Cultural History of Color set. General Editors: Carole P. Biggam and Kirsten Wolf.

Musings and Prosings Thomas Haynes Bayly, 1833 Tatler, 1914 Fashion Women 1800-1819 Box Set
 Suzi Love, 2021-06-14 An overview of the first twenty years of the 19th century. These books look at what was fashionable for women in Jane Austen's times or the early 1800s. Wars were being fought around the globe so women's fashion adopted a military look in support of soldiers. In Britain the Prince Regent ruled instead of his father King George III so fashions like the lifestyle became more extravagant and accessories went from pretty to opulent. This set includes books 12, 25, 26, 27, and 28.

Our Deportment John H. Young, 1880 Our Deportment, 1881 In The Midst Of Life Des Tobin, Graeme M Griffin, 2013-03-01 This is a thoroughly useful, authoritative, and compassionate book about the last taboo subject: death. In exploring our responses to death, it reveals a great deal about Australian society. There is grim humour in the practical details of burial in the days of pick and shovel and a priest if you were lucky. Stories of elaborate Victorian mourning, etiquette of poignant personal histories recorded on gravestones, of vehement debates about cremation, and much more, make good reading. The authors, a theologian and a funeral director, use this frank social history to look at questions we often avoid: What is grief? How can we help ourselves and others through it? What choices do we have for farewelling our loved ones? Are the rituals of churches, funeral parlours, and cemeteries flexible enough to meet our endlessly varied needs? Both professional and general readers will find many answers and yet more questions in this informative and reassuring book.

A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles James Augustus Henry Murray, 1908 The New Jerusalem magazine and theological inspector, 1826
