Ebewo, Mzo Sirayi, Ingrid Stevens, 2014-07-24 Africa and Beyond Arts and Sustainable Development is a massive undertaking by thoughtful theorists and practitioners in the creative cultural industry The combined effect of the volume is to disabuse the fixed prevailing conception of the role of culture in society a view that consigns the arts to the periphery of social life devoid of any meaningful contribution to the alleviation of poverty and general development Contrary to this view the volume presents a more comprehensive meaningful insightful set of perspectives and paradigms that ascribe agency to creative cultural products in all facets of human development The usefulness of the volume extends beyond the industry itself It is meant for a broader readership and is therefore highly recommended for specialists and the public at large Professor Mokubung Nkomo Deputy Vice Chancellor Tshwane University of Technology South Africa Minorities in Entrepreneurship Glenice J. Wood, M. J. Davidson, Sandra L. Fielden, 2012-01-01 In their powerful presentation of Minorities in Entrepreneurship the authors go beyond the traditional definitions of entrepreneurship to enhance our understanding of minority groups whether they be younger older women ethnic immigrant LGB disabled or indigenous The book provides a new perspective on the driving forces in becoming a business owner and the push and pull factors within and across groups Enhanced by in depth case studies of members in each group the study is a valuable contribution to the understanding of all venture owners a rich reference source for scholars and a worthwhile book of readings for students in the fields of entrepreneurship and gender and diversity Dorothy Perrin Moore The Citadel in Charleston South Carolina US There are books on minorities and there are books on entrepreneurship but there are no books combining the two and amongst a wide range of minorities in society This truly is a novel and innovative work and should be essential reading for all interested this topic Cary L Cooper CBE Lancaster

University Management School UK Although there is an expanding body of literature on the characteristics aspirations motivations challenges and barriers of mainstream entrepreneurs relatively little is known about whether these findings can be applied to the entrepreneurial activities of minority groups This book addresses this short fall and presents an international review of the characteristics motivations and obstacles of eight minority groups younger older women ethnic immigrant lesbian gay and bisexual disabled and indigenous entrepreneurs The expert contributors discover enormous variability between these minority groups such as in the motivators that either pushed or pulled individuals into an entrepreneurial venture as well as diverse attitudes toward success some groups wanted to achieve financial security others wanted to enhance their sense of self worth or to change existing social and economic circumstances However some striking similarities were noted initial disadvantage often created a powerful impetus to starting up a business venture and accessing finance was extremely difficult for many Including comparative cross cultural data and case studies on the various minority groups reviewed both post graduate students and undergraduate students studying entrepreneurship will find this book an invaluable resource In addition it will also be of interest to policy makers governments and all those who wish to comprehend the nature of small business ownership for a wide range of minority business owners
