Solutions That Work Fighting Poverty In Winnipeg:

Solutions that Work Jim Silver, 2012 This study of the explosive and dramatic growth of poverty in Winnipeg includes chapters on the growth and incidence of poverty in Winnipeg the impact of poverty on and community economic development strategies being developed by Winnipeg's Aboriginal community community based schooling as a response to inner city poverty the experience with workfare in Manitoba the importance of the minimum wage in combating poverty and a wide range of small but innovative community development alternatives Solutions that Work Jim Silver, Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives, 1999 Solving Poverty Jim Silver, 2016-03-30T00:00:00Z Poverty in Canada's inner cities is deep complex racialized and often intergenerational In this collection of essays published over the past decade Jim Silver argues that urban poverty today includes not only low incomes but in all too many cases also poor housing poor health low educational achievement high levels of neighbourhood violence racism colonialism and social exclusion As a result many poor people experience low levels of self esteem and self confidence and may blame themselves which is reinforced by the dominant blame the victim discourse about poverty Silver argues that today's urban poverty is qualitatively different than the urban poverty of forty years ago and that there are no quick easy or one dimensional solutions In Solving Poverty Jim Silver a veteran scholar actively engaged in anti poverty efforts in Winnipeg's inner city for decades offers an on the ground analysis of this form of poverty Silver focuses particularly on the urban Aboriginal experience and describes a variety of creative and effective urban Aboriginal community development initiatives as well as other anti poverty initiatives that have been successful in Winnipeg's inner city In the concluding chapter Silver offers a comprehensive pan Canadian strategy to dramatically reduce the incidence of urban poverty in Canada Fringe Banking in Winnipeg's North End Jerry

Buckland, Thibault Martin, Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives, 2005 The geographic boundaries of the North End as determined by the North End Community Renewal Corporation is north of the CPR tracks south of Caruthers Avenue east of McPhillips Street and west of the Red River This 5 In his examination of fringe banking in the US Caskey 1994 p 84 argues that a chief reason for their rise is the increase in the number of households without bank accounts rising from 9.5% of the US population in 1977 to 13.5% in 1989 the result of processes affecting banks supply side and bank clients demand side The second focus credit risk related to high levels of debt servicing and personal bankruptcy the contraction in the bank and finance company supply of non revolving unsecured loans the growing numbers of people with higher credit risk due to increased legal and illegal immigration to the US the increase in gold prices the growing awareness among entrepreneurs of the profits in fringe banking Winnipeg and the 16.5% of the population of the North End North End both have around 13.5% of comprise a smaller percentage at 11.9% their population over the age of retire of the population of Winnipeg This is sub the number of people contributing income substantially higher than the 35% average in to a household the greater the likelihood the rest of Winnipeg Building a Better World, 3rd Edition Stephanie Ross, Larry Savage, Errol Black, Jim

Silver,2020-05-27T00:00:00Z This third edition of Building a Better World offers a comprehensive introductory overview of Canada's labour movement The book includes an analysis of why workers form unions assesses their organization and democratic potential examines issues related to collective bargaining grievances and strike activity charts the historical development of labour unions and describes the gains unions have achieved for their members and all working people

Resilience in Action Linda Liebenberg,Michael Ungar,2008-06-28 Mental health specialists and researchers contend that the development of resilience in youth is facilitated at several levels Relational cultural individual and governmental factors all have a strong influence over the mental well being of young people Resilience in Action looks at youth interventions with a view to fostering resilience in those living in adverse situations and conditions In order to provide a practical approach to the issue the essays in this volume explore the components of successful interventions encouraging the transmission of effective practices from one community to another across borders It is organized into four sections each dealing with a different aspect of work with at risk youth The first section focuses on individual health and the ways in which intervention and therapy strengthen personal resources The second section explores the dynamics of interventions in relation to specific contexts and localized relationships emphasizing holistic approaches to youth work A review of the cultural relevance of resilience follows in section three and the fourth considers ways of increasing the accessibility to resources that encourage healthy development Featuring contributors from a variety of academic and cultural backgrounds Resilience in Action offers diverse answers to many of the persistent questions mental health professionals ask regarding how to enhance resilience

Resiliency and Capacity Building in Inner-city Learning Communities Dawn Leigh Sutherland,Laura Sokal,2003 The voices that are represented in this book offer differing perspectives on ways to support inner city children and families Each essay offers a unique contribution to our understanding of the interdependence of the people in these communities yet all share the common message that inner city children and families have strengths that can be built on to maximize their positive outcomes This book is especially relevant to teachers who work with children and families with challenges
