Some Poems And Some Talk About Poetry:

Some More Poems by Joe Joe Perrone, 2025-03-12 I wrote my first poem in two thousand two When I turned sixty what else could I do To relieve the pain of a Trade Center view Which while at work made me then my life rue It started one night on the train going home When I took paper and wrote my first poem Trying to block memories that made me moan Of buildings that fell crushing flesh and bone While the train rumbled from station to station The poems poured forth as if taking dictation But the poems I wrote were not tragic or sad Maybe because I needed to be glad They were mostly about my mom and my dad Stories so funny I felt like a cad Telling how mom would relieve her frustration On dad like in a sitcom situation With time other poems came forth with galore On subjects that blossomed into so much more That they filled a first book Some Poems By Joe With More In This Tome That I Hope You ll Love so Joe Perrone We Need to Talk Michael Theune, Bob Broad, 2017-10-24 We evaluate poems constantly as workshop leaders competition judges and journal editors But how do we judge the success of verse in these contexts The authors propose an innovative method by which anyone involved in the assessment of poetry can be more transparent about how they value verse This book foregrounds the ethical and professional obligations of poets teachers and critics to conduct axiological inquiry so they can discover and publish what they value We Need to Talk suggests why and how people who care about poetry should communally explore and document their shared and conflicting values This is the first book to provide the background and theory as well as a practical working model for the communal empirical evaluation of creative writing The New Georgia Encyclopedia Companion to Georgia Literature Hugh Ruppersburg, 2011-08-15 Georgia has played a formative role in the writing of America Few states have produced a more impressive array of literary figures among them Conrad Aiken Erskine Caldwell James Dickey Joel Chandler Harris Carson McCullers Flannery O Connor Jean Toomer and Alice Walker This volume contains biographical and critical discussions of Georgia writers from the nineteenth century to the present as well as other information pertinent to Georgia literature Organized in alphabetical order by author the entries discuss each author s life and work contributions to Georgia history and culture and relevance to wider currents in regional and national literature Lists of recommended readings supplement most entries Especially important Georgia books have their own entries works of social significance such as Lillian Smith s Strange Fruit international publishing sensations like Margaret Mitchell s Gone With the Wind and crowning artistic achievements including Jean Toomer s Cane The literary culture of the state is also covered with information on the Georgia Review and other journals the Georgia Center for the Book which promotes authors and reading and the Townsend Prize given in recognition of the year s best fiction This is an essential volume for readers who want both to celebrate and learn more about Georgia s literary heritage Poem Central Shirley McPhillips, 2023-10-10 In everything we have to understand poetry can help Tony Hoagland Harper s April 2013 In Poem Central Word Journeys with Readers and Writers Shirley McPhillips helps us better understand the central role poetry can play in our personal lives and in the life of our
