Someone Somewhere Encounters With People And Places:

Gunpoint Capitalism Laurent Gayer, 2025-02-27 On 11 September 2012 over 250 workers of Ali Enterprises which produced jeans for the German discount retailer KiK perished in a fire in their Karachi factory Was this an accident or an arson attack Straight away the tragedy gave rise to contradictory interpretations While some blamed the exploitative logics of fast fashion others suspected foul play by the political parties preying on the city and its business class Taking as a starting point the controversy caused by this disaster Gunpoint Capitalism plunges us into the murky waters of globalisation Exploring the back alleys of Pakistan's industrial capital city it shows how the manufacturing economy makes order out of disorder and profit out of conflict to the detriment of workers In Karachi as elsewhere petty criminals and ex servicemen prove to be formidable enforcers of economic order A comparison with Europe the United States and Latin America confirms the central place of such henchmen in the dynamics of capitalism These shock troops of anti unionism are now participating in the dismantling of the social state This probing sometimes shocking book sheds new light on the power structures organised violence and daily labour struggles underpinning the production of our consumer goods How To Make The World A Better Place Erasmo Flores, 2021-06-23 In his first book Erasmo provides a collection of observations deductions and opinions that identify problems and proposes solutions to correct those problems The intent is to promote the utilization of situational awareness as we pursue happiness that simultaneously facilitates the likelihood for others to experience their own happiness

Close Encounters Andrew Davison, 2025-03-25 What would it look like to approach data with the care and attentiveness that we bring to a poem Andrew Davison proposes a new philosophy of data modeled on the affective and ethical qualities of the encounter between a reader and a literary text and demonstrates its significance for understanding urgent social and political issues In a cross disciplinary engagement with philosophical literary and political theoretical accounts of poetic experience Close Encounters challenges the philosophical underpinnings of dominant approaches to data analysis Instead Davison argues social scientists should treat their data with the same close attention and ethical responsibility that are accorded to literary texts In this view quantitative and qualitative data are not only collected coded or constructed they are entrusted to the care of their recipient Such attunement yields original insight into silenced erased and neglected subaltern dimensions of the data Davison demonstrates how this methodology provides fresh perspective on pressing topics such as immigration border politics torture war Trumpism violent political speech medical care criminal justice algorithmic governance and the COVID 19 pandemic Bringing together a strikingly original theorization of data with a rich array of examples Close Encounters shows why the skills and methods of literary inquiry are essential to ethically sensitive data analysis Events Management Glenn Bowdin, Johnny Allen, Rob Harris, Ian McDonnell, William O'Toole, 2012-05-23 Events Management is the must have introductory text providing a complete A Z of the principles and practices of planning managing and staging events The book introduces the concepts of event planning and management presents the study of
