Something for Everybody John Timbs, 1861 Something for the children J William Green, 1849 Something for the Pain Paul Austin, 2009-10-21 A stunning account of the chaos of the emergency room Boston Globe In this eye opening account of life in the ER Paul Austin recalls how the daily grind of long erratic shifts and endless hordes of patients with sad stories sent him down a path of bitterness and cynicism Gritty powerful and ultimately redemptive Something for the Pain is a revealing glimpse into the fragility of compassion and sanity in the industrial setting of today's hospitals Something for the Birds Jacqueline Fahey, 2013-11-01 Fizzing with wit and style and featuring original illustrations by the author this lively humorous and tragic memoir traces the roots of a distinguished painter and her crucial role in New Zealand's feminist movement Exploring the author's Irish ancestors childhood in provincial Timaru New Zealand bohemian life as a student and marriage to celebrated psychiatrist Fraser Macdonald these stories highlight the evolution of culture and visual arts in New Zealand while they brilliantly depict her courageous and flamboyant trek through life The Men from the Boys William J. Mann, 1998-06-01 Jeff O'Brien bright good looking and inching dangerously past thirty is caught between two generations the Baby Boomers and Generation X He's been with his partner Lloyd for seven years now but when Lloyd announces that there's no passion left between them Jeff is sent into something of an existential frenzy Desperate not to end up alone Jeff haunts the dance floor and roadside rest stops finding both the sordid and the sublime in anonymous encounters But it's love he's after so ultimately it's his bittersweet romance in Provincetown with Eduardo twenty two and a vision of gorgeous wide eyed youth that lingers in his mind and seems to hold the answers he seeks This is a story of a man coming to terms with the accelerating ambiguity of his world where men die young but old age is actively devalued It is the story of gay life today the life being led by thousands of men trying desperately to keep up and to discover if anything really unites gay men other than desire It is the story of how the truths of gay life are handed down from gay generation to gay generation It is the story of what separates the men from the boys Rainbow Jews Jonathan C. Friedman, 2007-01-01 Rainbow Jews looks at the intersection of gay and Jewish identity in American and Israeli film and theater from the 1960s to the present Through a close reading of the texts of numerous American and Israeli plays and films Friedman evaluates some of the key conventions that have been employed to construct critique and reflect the connection between Jewishness and gay identity in the United States and Israel Friedman also explores ways in which gay Jewish playwrights and filmmakers have progressed the reevaluation of sexual norms within Judaism over the past three decades inspiring and integrating Jewish members of the GLBT community into the overall Jewish historical narrative LIFE, 1943-02-08 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Something for Nothing Jackson Lears, 2004-07-27 Jackson

Lears has won accolades for his skill in identifying the rich and unexpected layers of meaning beneath the familiar and mundane in our lives Now he challenges the conventional wisdom that the Protestant ethic of perseverance industry and disciplined achievement is what made America great Turning to the deep seldom acknowledged reverence for luck that runs through our entire history from colonial times to the early twenty first century Lears traces how luck chance and gambling have shaped and at times defined our national character
