authoritarian post ruling party South Korea and post colonial Bolivia we have the antecedents for contemporary middle powers essential for realizing the regional evolution for cooperative change with greater powers systemically we may then grasp today why those historical foreign policies albeit not so long ago give us crucial antecedents for adapting and trying yet again to resolve seemingly perennial power dilemmas regionally peacefully Here are why middle power impact matters not only regionally for stronger dominant greater power neighbours but also for transformative middle power leaderships which proved pivotal geopolitically for their region s challenges and changes

Competition Law changed in the 1990s using the essential facilities doctrine an expansive non discrimination principle and the policing of cross subsidisation to tackle what were then thought of as regulatory matters Also examined within the work is the procedural and institutional interplay between competition law and telecommunications regulation In conclusion Larouche explores the limits of competition law and puts forward a long term case for sector specific regulation with a precise mandate to ensure that the telecommunications sector as a whole fulfils its role as a foundation for economic and social activity
