selves memories and life worlds are interwoven in one narrative fabric Written on the Body Jane Caplan, 2021-10-12 Despite the social sciences growing fascination with tattooing and the immense popularity of tattoos themselves the practice has not left much of a historical record And until very recently there was no good context for writing a serious history of tattooing in the West This collection exposes for the first time the richness of the tattoo s European and American history from antiquity to the present day In the process it rescues tattoos from their stereotypical and sensationalized association with criminality The tattoo has long hovered in a space between the cosmetic and the punitive Throughout its history the status of the tattoo has been complicated by its dual association with slavery and penal practices on the one hand and exotic or forbidden sexuality on the other The tattoo appears often as an involuntary stigma sometimes as a self imposed marker of identity and occasionally as a beautiful corporal decoration This volume analyzes the tattoo s fluctuating often uncomfortable position from multiple angles Individual chapters explore fascinating segments of its history from the metaphorical meanings of tattooing in Celtic society to the class related commodification of the body in Victorian Britain from tattooed entertainers in Germany to tattooing and piercing as self expression in the contemporary United States But they also accumulate to form an expansive textured view of permanent bodily modification in the West By combining empirical history powerful cultural analysis and a highly readable style this volume both draws on and propels the ongoing effort to write a meaningful cultural history of the body The contributors representing several disciplines have all conducted extensive original research into the Western tattoo Together they have produced an unrivalled account of its history They are in addition to the editor Clare Anderson Susan Benson James Bradley Ian Duffield Juliet Fleming Alan Govenar Harriet Guest Mark Gustafson C P Jones Charles MacQuarrie Hamish Maxwell Stewart Stephan Oettermann Jennipher A Rosecrans and Abby Schrader Make Your Mark Jacci Gresham, Sherry Fellores, 2025-01-14 A picture book biography celebrating the first known Black female tattoo artist in the U S Jacci Gresham co authored by Jacci herself and with stylish accessible artwork by David Wilkerson How to make your mark Express yourself From coloring outside the lines to creating her own clothes expressing herself through art made Jacci Gresham feel confident Keep an open mind When Jacci started out women getting tattooed was considered distasteful Women giving tattoos was unheard of And a Black woman tattoo artist Jacci was the first Practice every day Jacci studied her craft She developed new inking techniques for Black and brown skin And she welcomed everyone into her New Orleans shop including women of every color shape and size Stand up for what you believe From art class to artist Jacci Gresham pushed boundaries and she never took no for an answer Jacci made her mark How will you make yours Part autobiography part advice book Inspiring Booklist Informative and inspirational Kirkus And Death Shall Have Dominion: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Dying, Caregivers, Death, Mourning and the Bereaved Katarzyna Malecka, Rossanna Gibbs, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 This collection of essays presents a variety of perspectives on death and dying by scholars from different countries The areas covered in the
