Pears, 2004-01-01 In Remnants of Empire in Algeria and Vietnam Women Words and War author Pamela A Pears proposes a new approach to Francophone studies The work uses postcolonial theory along with gender and feminist inquiries to emphasize the connections between two Francophone literatures Algerian and Vietnamese Specifically Pears focuses on four novels Yamina Mechakra's La Grotte Zlaty Ly Thu Ho's Le Mirage de la paix Malika Mokeddem's L'Interdite and Kim Lefèvre's Retour la saison des pluies All four novels show the profound transformation of women's roles in Algeria and Vietnam during and following the presence of French colonialism These four authors never attempt to unfold a clear and single definition of the postcolonial female subject Instead they explore the various subjective possibilities expand on them and ultimately place them in question Although the differences between Algeria and Vietnam are striking it is through their connections to one another that we can foreground postcolonial gender issues Whereas geographical boundaries and official nationalities serve as divisive classifications the links between the works lead us to a much more engaging dialogue and ultimate understanding of postcolonial Francophone literature 2,001 Most Useful French Words Heather McCoy, 2012-05-02 This practical up to date compilation of common terms includes the French word its definition a sentence in French to demonstrate proper usage and an English translation plus a quick reference section of everyday words French Poem Book Part 2 Manish
