

As late the house smelt a well,
And so he plump'd it with head and tail,
The very moment that there rang
Of no at the place the head "chickadee!"

The house's wife, with window up,
Not sipping coffee from her cup,
The boiler up the smoke down
And stared her to a peeped green,
Now by the wall in looking for
The rabbit's child, and saw the boy,
And glanced back with a peeped grey
(Unwashed of the coffee spray).

And would have laughed, but changed his mood
When that hot coffee smelt her head,
He watched the open and closed her
With many a halting word over there,
To talk to drink the steamy tea
Who'd brought this accident down,
But when he saw it was his son,
He changed his mood again, she!

Story of the Thank-You

"Kissed" said his mother dear,
"I'll go out, but you may hear,
Try how pretty you can be Till I come again," said she.
"Don't be, and good and mild,
Pray don't, with your thanks, my child,
For if you do, the ruler'll come
And bring his down and stop your thanks,
From all your head to foot and down
As if of paper it had been."

Before she'd turned the corner round,
He'd got his thanks in his mouth!
