Slovo The Unfinished Autobiography Of Anc Leader Joe Slovo:

Slovo, the Unfinished Autobiography Joe Slovo, 1997 The unfinished autobiography of ANC leader Joe Slovo with a foreword by Nelson Mandela Ruth First and Joe Slovo in the War Against Apartheid Alan Wieder, 2013-07 Ruth First and Joe Slovo husband and wife were leaders of the war to end apartheid in South Africa Communists scholars parents and uncompromising militants they were the perfect enemies for the white police state Together they were swept up in the growing resistance to apartheid and together they experienced repression and exile Their contributions to the liberation struggle as individuals and as a couple are undeniable Ruth agitated tirelessly for the overthrow of apartheid first in South Africa and then from abroad and Joe directed much of the armed struggle carried out by the famous Umkhonto we Sizwe Only one of them however would survive to see the fall of the old regime and the founding of a new democratic South Africa This book the first extended biography of Ruth First and Joe Slovo is a remarkable account of one couple and the revolutionary moment in which they lived Alan Wieder s deeply researched work draws on the usual primary and secondary sources but also an extensive oral history that he has collected over many years By weaving the documentary record together with personal interviews Wieder portrays the complexities and contradictions of this extraordinary couple and their efforts to navigate a time of great tension upheaval and revolutionary hope The Unmaking of a Conservative AFRICA

ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE Peter James Cannon, 2014-06-25 This is Peter Cannon s first book He has extensive tripartite experience in basic human rights and organizational development His decades long cross cultural ability to deliver services professionally under varied conditions took place in Angola Bangladesh Botswana Canada Congo Egypt Ghana Kenya Liberia Lesotho Madagascar Malawi Mauritius Nigeria Norway Philippines South Africa South Korea Sudan Swaziland Togo Uganda Vietnam Zambia and Zimbabwe He resides with his wife Gudrun in North Kingstown Rhode Island The ANC and the Liberation Struggle in South Africa Thula Simpson, 2018-10-03 The history of the ANC which is the oldest liberation movement on the African continent is one that has generated a great deal of interest amongst historians in recent years Gone are the days when the history of African nationalism could be relegated to the margins of the study of the South African past Instead with the ANC having ascended to the helm of political power a position it has maintained for over twenty years there can be no question that its history occupies an important and permanent place in the history of the nation This volume gathers together some of the most important contributions to the literature on the ANC s role in South Africa s struggle for liberation Besides important themes such as gender ethnicity and healthcare contributions from leading historians also address why the ANC decided to engage in armed struggle what role the South African Communist Party played in making this decision how the ANC External Mission contributed to the upsurge of mass protest in South Africa in the 1970s and 1980s and the ANC s contribution relative to the other components of the liberation struggle in ensuring the eventual demise of the old racial order The chapters in this book were originally published in the South African Historical Journal the Journal of Southern African Studies and African Studies The Terrorist's Dilemma Jacob N. Shapiro, 2015-07-21 How do terrorist groups control their members Do the tools groups use to monitor their operatives and enforce discipline create security vulnerabilities that governments can exploit This title examines the great variation in how terrorist groups are structured

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Imperialism and Anti-Imperialism Immanuel Ness, Zak Cope, 2016-04-29 The Palgrave Encyclopedia Imperialism and Anti Imperialism objectively presents the prominent themes epochal events theoretical explanations and historical accounts of imperialism from 1776 to the present It is the most historically and academically comprehensive examination of the subject to date Treading the waters of history Kondlo, Kwandiwe, Saunders, Chris, 2014-12-10 This volume is an anthology of thought pieces about the ANC contributed by a variety of scholars and thinkers It gives voice to a variety of perspectives on the subject The fact that some authors disagree with each other is all part of what will we hope be an on going debate The book originated from a series of public dialogues that began before the centenary year and continued afterwards being held at the University of Free State The first section covers reflections on how knowledge of the history of the ANC has advanced and the position of that history in the general history of the liberation struggle This section aids a critical appraisal of the state of primary sources used in writing the history of the ANC Chapters in the second half of the book consider some of the various contexts in which the ANC has operated and continues to operate These include the evolution of the ANC s economic policy and how it has changed over time the kind of leadership the organisation provided in redefining gender relations and most importantly the ANC and international relations especially seen from the vantage point of progressive internationalism The last section examines the evolution of Pan Africanism in the ANC s ideological development The Roots of Participatory Democracy M. Williams, 2008-05-26 This book compares the Communist parties of India and South Africa in their pursuits of socialist democracy Williams looks at their organizational characteristics party history and their competing tendencies as well as how they have pushed forward their similar ideologies within their unique political and economic environments Inside Apartheid's Prison Raymond Suttner, 2001 After Raymond Suttner s arrest in 1975 he was subjected to torture solitary confinement and long periods in jail This book includes letters smuggled out of jail and provides insights into the psychological effects of confinement

External Mission Stephen Ellis, 2022-07-15 External Mission helped me understand better how the phenomenon of Jacob Zuma and his main legacy state capture became possible MAX DU PREEZ After the ANC was banned by the apartheid government in 1960 many of its leaders and members were forced to leave the country During the next three decades it had to operate in exile and underground Yet the real history of this period remains shrouded in mystery Some events such as the Rhodesian campaign of 1967 1968 and the Kabwe conference of 1985 are well known but lesser known are the intense factional struggles within the organisation recurring pro democracy protests and the creation of a security apparatus that inspired widespread fear Some networks within the exiled ANC became heavily involved in corruption even colluding with elements of the apartheid security police and secret services External Mission aims to provide a full account of the ANC's years in exile penetrating the secrecy the organisation erected around itself and testing the myths that emerged from that period It is based on an exceptionally wide range of sources including the ANC's own archives and foreign archives such as those in East Germany where the movement's security personnel were trained Incisive and revealing External Mission is key to understanding South Africa today

Boycotts Past and Present David Feldman, 2018-12-29 In this book historians and social scientists examine boycotts from the eighteenth century to the present day Employed in struggles against British rule in the American colonies against racial discrimination in the United States during the Civil Rights movement and Apartheid in South Africa today it is Israel that is the focus of a campaign for Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS Boycotts have featured in campaigns undertaken by labour consumer and nationalist movements Jews were the focus of some boycotts instigated by nationalist movements in Central and Eastern Europe and Jewish businesses were targeted by the National Socialist regime in Germany In this collection contributors explore the history of past boycott movements and examine the different narratives put forward by proponents and opponents of the current BDS movement directed against Israel one which places the movement within a history of struggles for human rights the other which regards BDS as the latest manifestation of an antisemitic tradition

Reassessing Mandela Colin Bundy, William Beinart, 2020-12-17 Seven years since his death 2013 Nelson Mandela still occupies an extraordinary place in the global imagination Internationally Mandela's renown seems intact and invulnerable In South Africa however his legacy and his place in the country's history have become matters of contention and dispute especially amongst younger black South Africans The essays in this book analyse aspects of Mandela's life in the context of South Africa's national history and make an important contribution to the historiography of the anti-apartheid political struggle They reassess the political context of Mandela's youth his changing political beliefs and connections with the Left his role in the African National Congress and the turn to armed struggle his marriage to Winnie Madikizela Mandela and their political relationship By providing new context they explore Mandela as an actor in broader social processes such as the rise of the ANC and the making of South Africa's post-apartheid constitution The detailed essays are linked in a substantial introduction by Colin Bundy and current debates are addressed in a concluding essay by Elleke Boehmer This book provides a scholarly counterweight both to uncritical celebration of Mandela and also to a simplistic attribution of post-apartheid shortcomings to the person of Mandela This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies

Salvador Allende Reader Salvador Allende Gossens, Jane Carolina Canning, 2000 On September 11 1973 General Augusto Pinochet led a bloody coup against President Salvador Allende in Chile Allende died in the Presidential Palace as it was attacked by Pinochet's army Controversy still surrounds the role of Washington and the CIA in the overthrow of the popularly elected government of Allende a self-proclaimed Marxist For decades Allende's name and the experience of the Popular Unity government was all but erased from history not only in Chile but internationally This first ever anthology presents Allende s voice and his vision of a more democratic peaceful and just world to a new generation I don t see why we need to stand by and watch a country go communist because of the irresponsibility of its own people Henry Kissinger on the prospect of Allende s electoral victory in 1970 This anthology is the first collection in English of Allende s speeches and interviews and will be of value for academic collections on Latin America Library Journal Features a substantial biographical introduction on Allende and an extensive chronology and bibliography

Cyril Ramaphosa Ray Hartley,2018-10-01 For a long time Cyril Ramaphosa was the nearly man of South African politics He was Nelson Mandela s preferred successor but the ANC opted for his rival Thabo Mbeki as the second post apartheid president Ramaphosa had led South Africa s huge mineworkers union against the apartheid regime and was the key architect of the much praised 1996 rainbow constitution He later prospered in business on the back of the first big empowerment deals with white owned enterprises before returning to politics and the ANC in 2012 His eyes firmly on the prize Ramaphosa played a long game as President Zuma became mired in scandal In early 2018 Deputy President Ramaphosa persuaded the party to throw out Zuma and install him in his place Announcing a new dawn he has captivated the nation but now faces his greatest challenge fixing a broken economy weeding out Zuma s corrupt minions and the legacy of state capture by the Gupta brothers and delivering on the promise of a better life for the poor This captivating biography outlines Ramaphosa s extraordinary political and business career It tells the story of one of the greatest political comebacks of modern times

Priest and Partisan Michael E. Worsnip,1996 A biography of the life and work of Father Michael Lapsley who lost both hands and an eye as the target of a letter bomb from South Africa Describes his struggles with his commitment to pacifism and his church in the face of apartheid in his adopted homeland South Africa Presents the events and experiences that converted him into a freedom fighter and after he became a victim into a healer and a voice for reconciliation in the post apartheid era Includes a foreword by Nelson Mandela a list of abbreviations and an index The author is a prominent South African theologian

Albert Luthuli Robert Trent Vinson,2018-08-09 In an excellent addition to the Ohio Short Histories of Africa series Robert Trent Vinson recovers the important but largely forgotten story of Albert Luthuli Africa s first Nobel Peace Prize winner and president of the African National Congress from 1952 to 1967 One of the most respected African leaders Luthuli linked South African antiapartheid politics with other movements becoming South Africa s leading advocate of Mahatma Gandhi s nonviolent civil disobedience techniques He also framed apartheid as a crime against humanity and thus linked South African antiapartheid struggles with international human rights campaigns Unlike previous studies this book places Luthuli and the South African antiapartheid struggle in new global contexts and aspects of Luthuli s leadership that were not previously publicly known Vinson is the first to use new archival evidence numerous oral interviews and personal memoirs to reveal that

Luthuli privately supported sabotage as an additional strategy to end apartheid This multifaceted portrait will be indispensable to students of African history and politics and nonviolence movements worldwide G.K. Hall
