Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks Volume 10 Søren Kierkegaard, 2018-08-14 For over a century the Danish thinker S ren Kierkegaard 1813-55 has been at the center of a number of important discussions concerning not only philosophy and theology but also more recently fields such as social thought psychology and contemporary aesthetics especially literary theory Despite his relatively short life Kierkegaard was an extraordinarily prolific writer as attested to by the 26 volume Princeton University Press edition of all of his published writings But Kierkegaard left behind nearly as much unpublished writing most of which consists of what are called his journals and notebooks Kierkegaard has long been recognized as one of history s great journal keepers but only rather small portions of his journals and notebooks are what we usually understand by the term diaries By far the greater part of Kierkegaard s journals and notebooks consists of reflections on a myriad of subjects philosophical religious political personal Studying his journals and notebooks takes us into his workshop where we can see his entire universe of thought We can witness the genesis of his published works to be sure but we can also see whole galaxies of concepts new insights and fragments large and small of partially or almost entirely completed but unpublished works Kierkegaard s Journals and Notebooks enables us to see the thinker in dialogue with his times and with himself Kierkegaard wrote his journals in a two column format one for his initial entries and the second for the extensive marginal comments that he added later This edition of the journals reproduces this format includes several photographs of original manuscript pages and contains extensive scholarly commentary on the various entries and on the history of the manuscripts being reproduced Volume 10 of this series includes the final six of Kierkegaard s important NB journals Journals NB31 through NB36 which cover the last months of 1854 a period when Kierkegaard made the final preparations for and the initial launch of his furious assault on the established church But in addition to this incendiary material these journals also contain a great trove of his reflections on theology philosophy and the perils and opportunities of modernity

Representing Acts of Violence in Comics Nina Mickwitz, Ian Horton, Ian Hague, 2019-08-01 This book is part of a nuanced two volume examination of the ways in which violence in comics is presented in different texts genres cultures and contexts Representing Acts of Violence in Comics raises questions about depiction and the act of showing violence and discusses the ways in which individual moments of violence develop and are both represented and embodied in comics and graphic novels Contributors consider the impact of gendered and sexual violence and examine the ways in which violent acts can be rendered palatable for example through humour but also how comics can represent trauma and long lasting repercussions for both perpetrators and victims This will be a key text and essential reference for scholars and students at all levels in Comics Studies and Cultural and Media Studies more generally

A Comparative Study of the Dosage and Effects of Chloral Hydrate, Isopral and Bromural on Cats Torald Hermann Sollmann, 1908

Factual Wisdom for the Age of Apostasy Thomas D. Sharts, MEd, 2015-08-04 This book Factual Wisdom For the Age of Apostasy accounts for those issues of life synonymous with the five areas of being human spiritual physical social psychological and vocational associated with living in an age void of truth and commonsense Moreover the book offers an analysis of these life issues from various expressive perspectives such as ruminations aphorisms sayings and proverbs It is the hope of this author that readers will comprehend how sacred life is in reference to safeguarding against willful ignorance vanity willful stupidity cowardice and hatred while alternatively exploring and developing beliefs and behavioral lifestyles that promote the sanctity of life In truth life is to be lived in such a manner that living is lifted up in glory so that each person on earth has an opportunity to achieve his her life giving purpose and receive and allocate community blessings because of such a fact Anything less than such a blessed experience are those persons that are living the living death and certainly the works expressed in this book find these kinds of lives and those machinations responsible for such debasing experiences a reprehensible outrage that must be excised from civilized social life

Dragons of the Hundred Worlds (Ruin Mist Chronicles Prequel, 10th Anniversary Edition) Robert Stanek, 2015-05-14 An all new edition to celebrate the 10th Anniversary of Robert Stanek s fantasy world Journey to the ancient past and learn the secrets of Ruin Mist s greatest legend For thousands of years the ageless dragons have ruled the hundred worlds conquering all who oppose them while raising those who bring them glory But in remote Karthold Rast n struggles to keep alive the memories of his fallen people and fulfill the wishes of his ailing father For an Alv Rast n is young He has no great power to help him no true magic to light his way and keep him safe Yet as his life turns increasingly grim Rast n must find the courage and resourcefulness to befriend his most savage enemies if there is to be hope for him and his people To restore the honor of his people Rast n will rise from slave to gladiator and from gladiator to emperor This is his story This is where the story of Ruin Mist truly begins The Twilight of Cutting Saida Hodzic,2017 The last three decades have witnessed a proliferation of nongovernmental organizations engaging in new campaigns to end the practice of female genital cutting across Africa These campaigns have in turn spurred new institutions discourses and political projects bringing about unexpected social transformations both intended and unintended Consequently cutting is waning across the continent At the same time these endings are misrecognized and disavowed by public and scholarly discourses across the political spectrum What does it mean to say that while cutting is ending the Western discourse surrounding it is on the rise And what kind of a feminist anthropology is needed in such a moment The Twilight of Cutting examines these and other questions from the vantage point of Ghanaian feminist and reproductive health NGOs that have organized campaigns against cutting for over thirty years The book looks at these NGOs not as solutions but as sites of problematization The purpose of understanding these Ghanaian campaigns their transnational and regional encounters and the forms of governmentality they produce is not to charge them with providing answers to the question how do we end cutting Instead it is to account for their work their historicity the life worlds and subjectivities they engender and the modes of reflection imminent critique and opposition they set in motion Ezekiel's Message of Hope and Restoration Hei Yin Yip,2021-04-19 The first twenty four chapters of the book of Ezekiel are characterised by vehement declarations of judgement This observation leaves the impression that Ezekiel 1 7 is devoid of references to hope and restoration However there is a redactional stratum in this section that supplemented the texts with material that conveys restoration and hope for the future In Ezekiel 1 7 many of these additions focus on priestly topics The motif of restoration in the redactional material of Ezekiel 3 5 is expressed by the reinstatement of Ezekiel in his priestly role This editorial emphasis on Ezekiel as priest in the redactional material suggests that the redaction was influenced by Zechariah 3 a text that depicts the reinstitution of the exiled Zadokite priesthood Moreover the redactional material of Ezekiel 6 7 drew inspiration from the Law of the Temple in Ezekiel 43 46 as the redactors sought to enhance Ezekiel s priestly role The study provides new insights into how redactors who may have been associated with the Zadokite priesthood inserted the message of hope and restoration into the literary unit Ezekiel 1 7 during the post exilic period In the Face of Diversity Nathan D. Gardner Molina,2025-05-01 The unity or uniformity of the Chinese Australian community has been frequently referenced in many recent political popular and even academic discussions The oneness of the community is often described as latent and inevitable if not already a fact Yet many Chinese Australians have also aspirationally used collective terms to refer to themselves there have been perennial calls to unite and advance the community or have it speak with one voice But has a united or unitary Chinese Australian community ever actually existed If so would a united community be a means to an end or an end in itself And where would this community sit in contemporary multicultural Australia I Am You Are We Are attempts to answer to these questions it is a history of more than a dozen Chinese Australian community organisations from across the country over five decades that draws on the English and Chinese language materials these organisations have produced over the years as well as interviews with ten past and present leaders Instead of a single community the evidence demonstrates the existence of many diverse Chinese Australian communities Consequently the book advances two ideas Chinese Australian unity presents itself as a chimera that inhabits the social space shared by Chinese Australians and has only ever been momentarily or partially grasped by community organisations Imagining the Chinese Australian community has nonetheless produced real world outcomes the most prominent being a highly participatory style of Australian multiculturalism These two ideas are woven through six moments in recent history that have been highly decisive for Chinese Australian communities I Am You Are We Are conveys Chinese Australian history in clear and evocative prose while remaining academically authoritative and socially conscious The result is a work that dismantles the prevailing myth of a single Chinese bloc to rebuild an appreciation of multiculturalism in Australia along with specific contributions made by Chinese Australian communities
