Haastrup,2013-10-04 This book analyses security cooperation in the domain of inter regionalism addressing the emergence of the African Union as a regional actor and its impact on EU Africa relations It explores the transformative potential of security cooperation for equality partnership and local ownership in EU Africa relations Controlling Small Arms Peter

Batchelor, Kai Michael Kenkel, 2013-11-20 This edited volume takes stock of the state of research and policy on the issue of Small Arms and Light Weapons (SALW) ten years after the UN first agreed to deal with the problem. The end of the Cold War originated a series of phenomena that would subsequently come to dominate the political agenda. Perhaps most symptomatic of the ensuing environment is the marked escalation in the scale and dynamics of armed violence driven by the proliferation of SALW. Events in Rwanda, Somalia, and Bosnia seared into global consciousness the devastating effects of this phenomenon and of the necessity to engage actively in its limitation and prevention. This edited volume explores and outlines the research and policy on the SALW issue at this critical juncture. In addition to providing a detailed telling of the genesis and evolution of SALW research and advocacy, the volume features a series of essays from leading scholars in the field on both advances in research and action on SALW. It reflects on what has been achieved in terms of cumulative advances in data methodology and analysis and looks at the ways in which these developments have helped to inform policy making at national, regional, and international levels. Alongside situating and integrating past and present advances in advocacy and international action, Controlling Small Arms also outlines future directions for research and action. This book will be of much interest to students of small arms, peace and conflict studies, peacebuilding, security studies, and IR.

Victims as Security Threats Edward O. Mogire, 2011 Refugees as a security threat, Refugee militarisation, Refugees and inter-state conflict, Refugees and violent conflict in host states, Refugees and crime, Refugees and the problem of illicit small arms and light weapons (SALW), Refugees and the terrorist threat, Security and refugee policies in East Africa.

Crime, War, and Global Trafficking Christine Jojath, 2009-04-09 Asks whether governments choose the best institutional designs to enable effective measures against criminal trafficking.

Handbook of Transnational Crime and Justice Philip Reichel, Jay Albanese, 2013-04-29 Transnational crime and justice will characterize the 21st century in the same way that traditional street crimes dominated the 20th century. In the Handbook of Transnational Crime and Justice, Philip Reichel and Jay Albanese bring together top scholars from around the world to offer perspectives on the laws, crimes, and criminal justice responses to transnational crime. This concise reader-friendly handbook is organized logically around four major themes: the problem of transnational crime, analysis of specific transnational crimes, approaches to its control, and regional geographical analyses. Each comprehensive chapter is designed to be explored as a stand-alone topic, making this handbook an important textbook and reference tool for students and practitioners alike.

No Refuge Robert Muggah, 2013-04-04 Africa's refugee and IDP camps are a cause of major concern to the international community. Millions of men, women, and children endure situations of protracted displacement in deplorable conditions. In the absence of more durable solutions, refugees and IDPs in many situations are exceptionally susceptible to militarization. No Refuge describes how the phenomenon of refugee militarization threatens to undermine asylum and protection. This edited volume is a timely and invaluable resource for governments, UNHCR protection officers, UN agencies, and NGOs. It is a must-read for all concerned with improving the safety and rights of refugees and IDPs on the ground.

Guterres United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees No Refuge provides a timely analysis by a group of Africa experts of the causes and consequences of refugee militarization in Africa It should prove invaluable for practitioners policy makers and academics in their quest to find practical and effective remedies for this growing humanitarian and security problem I highly recommend it Professor Gil Loescher Centre for International Studies University of Oxford The militarization of refugees and internally displaced persons IDPs is a persistent and tragic feature of protracted displacement situations especially in Africa The phenomenon threatens access to asylum and protection core pillars of refugee law and the mandates of aid agencies But while policy debates rage over how best to disarm refugees and prevent them from destabilizing neighbouring states there is surprisingly little evidence explaining why displaced people arm themselves or precisely how militarization affects hosting communities No Refuge analyses the experience of refugee and IDP militarization in several African countries affected by and emerging from civil war including Guinea Rwanda Uganda and Tanzania It provides a considered overview of the historical political and regional dimensions of refugee and IDP militarization in Africa as well as international and national efforts to contain it

The Search for Lasting Peace Rosalind Boyd, 2016-02-17 Presenting the human security agenda as a policy response to the changing nature of violent conflicts and war this collection traces its evolution in relation to conflicts in different contexts Burma India Palestine Canada East Timor Guatemala Peru and African countries and from the perspective of gender addresses initiatives for peace with justice Cases are analysed when the human security agenda including UNSC resolution 1325 was in its initial phase and point to both the weakness of the concept and the unexpected direction it has taken These discussions always relevant are more urgent than ever as gender based violence against women has increased resulting in new UNSC resolutions Some chapters suggest that militarism and economic globalization must be directly confronted Many of the contributors to the volume bridge the gap between academic research and activism as scholar activists with an engaged connection to the situations they are describing Human security remains an active component of policy and academic debates in security studies women s and gender studies development studies history and political economy as well as within NGO communities This rich collection fills a needed gap in the literature and it does so in a language and style that is clear accessible and reader friendly

Non-Traditional Security in Asia Ralf Emmers, 2017-03-02 The security issues confronting Asia are both complex and diverse Given the increasing trend towards an expanding security agenda beyond the military dimension of inter state relations this volume provides an extensive study of emerging non traditional challenges to this region New realities and new challenges have come to the fore including environmental degradation illegal immigration infectious diseases transnational crime poverty and underdevelopment Drawing upon the concepts of securitization and de securitization this book brings together regional perspectives from across Asia to examine how these challenges are perceived and managed It is a valuable contribution to both security and Asian studies and will be ideally suited to those interested in security studies international relations and development studies

Ghost Guns Mark A. Tallman, 2020-08-13 With thorough analysis and balanced reporting Ghost Guns Hobbyists Hackers and the Homemade Weapons Revolution is an essential resource for readers seeking to understand the rise of homemade firearms and future options for managing them For more than a century strict gun control was possible because firearms were produced in centralized industrial factories Today the Fourth Industrial Revolution combining old and new technologies threatens to upend this arrangement An increasing number of hobbyists makers technology provocateurs and sophisticated criminals are proving that you don't need a factory to make guns anymore The security challenges of this transformation are increasingly apparent but the technologies behind it hold tremendous potential and while ignoring the security implications would entail risks the costs of new policies also must be evaluated Do it yourself or DIY weapons will bring significant ramifications for First and Second Amendment law international and homeland security crime control technology privacy innovation and the character of open source culture itself How can a liberal society adjust to technologies that make it easier to produce weapons and contraband Informative and thought provoking Ghost Guns Hobbyists Hackers and the Homemade Weapons Revolution carefully analyzes the technical legal social political and criminological trends behind this challenging new area of illicit weapons activity

China and the European Union in Africa Benjamin Barton, 2016-05-23 China's rise on the international scene over the past few years has correlated with its exponential economic growth The European Union EU the world's largest development aid provider has been feeling the heat of Beijing's closer ties with Africa As a result the EU's overall policy making towards Africa has suffered from a loss of credibility and this has been further exposed both by the success of China's investments in Africa and by the favourable response that China's investment proposals have received from African leaders Dividing the book into five parts the editors and an outstanding line up of Chinese and European contributors guide the reader through the complexities of China's rising influence in Africa but they also analyse if and how the EU should adapt to this
