SMALL TALK. JUSTINE. COUPLAND, 2016 This collection of papers explores the wide range of social settings genres and topics in which talk might in various senses be regarded as small It further explains the implied contract between small and supposedly full forms of talk along with the sociopolitics such assumptions carry with them Each of the papers in its own way examines how as part of the process of fulfilling their intrinsically human needs for social cohesiveness and mutual recognition people actively recreate the bonding and respecting behaviors in local conversational routines that are the social fabric of their communities Beyond this the papers take inquiry into small talk forward and mainly in one direction to a richer and more diverse appreciation of the social functioning of small talk Better Small Talk Patrick King, 2020-04-14
