Smuggler Secessionists Loyal Citizens On The Ghana Togo Front:

Smugglers, Secessionists & Loyal Citizens on the Ghana-Toga Frontier Paul Nugent, 2002 Ghana on the Go Jennifer Hart, 2016-10-03 As early as the 1910s African drivers in colonial Ghana understood the possibilities that using imported motor transport could further the social and economic agendas of a diverse array of local agents including chiefs farmers traders fishermen and urban workers Jennifer Hart s powerful narrative of auto mobility shows how drivers built on old trade routes to increase the speed and scale of motorized travel Hart reveals that new forms of labor migration economic enterprise cultural production and social practice were defined by autonomy and mobility and thus shaped the practices and values that formed the foundations of Ghanaian society today Focusing on the everyday lives of individuals who participated in this century of social cultural and technological change Hart comes to a more sensitive understanding of the ways in which these individuals made new technology meaningful to their local communities and associated it with their future aspirations

The Bengal Borderland Willem van Schendel, 2005 The Bengal Borderland constitutes the epicentre of the partition of British India Yet while the forging of international borders between India Pakistan Bangladesh and Burma the Bengal Borderland has been a core theme in Partition studies these crucial borderlands have remarkably been largely ignored by historians Border Jumping and Migration Control in Southern Africa Francis Musoni, 2020-04-07 With the end of apartheid rule in South Africa and the ongoing economic crisis in Zimbabwe the border between these Southern African countries has become one of the busiest inland ports of entry in the world As border crossers wait for clearance crime violence and illegal entries have become rampant Francis Musoni observes that border jumping has become a way of life for many of those who live on both sides of the Limpopo River and he explores the reasons for this including searches for better paying jobs and access to food and clothing at affordable prices Musoni sets these actions into a framework of illegality He considers how countries have failed to secure their borders why passports are denied to travelers and how border jumping has become a phenomenon with a long history especially in Africa Musoni emphasizes cross border travelers active participation in the making of this history and how clandestine mobility has presented opportunity and creative possibilities for those who are willing to take the risk Securitising Decolonisation Julius Heise,2024-05-06 With the right to petition the United Nations the Ewe and Togoland unification movement enjoyed a privilege unmatched by other dependent peoples Using language conveying insecurity the movement seized the international spotlight ensuring that the topic of unification dominated the UN Trusteeship System for over a decade Yet its vociferous securitisations fell silent due to colonial distortion leaving unification unfulfilled thus allowing the seeds of secessionist conflict to grow At the intersection of postcolonial theory and security studies Julius Heise presents a theory driven history of Togoland s path to independence offering a crucial lesson for international statebuilding efforts Subverting Borders Bettina Bruns,Judith Miggelbrink,2011-10-08 Small scale trade and smuggling are part of everyday life at many borders These trading activities often compensate for economic shortage that many households are suffering from in consequence of e g political transformation processes Despite of the diversity of transborder small scale trade and smuggling and their wide dispersion not only in Europe their reception within social sciences is relatively low The contributions shed therefore light on research in geography and neighboured disciplines On the basis of empirical research findings from borders all over the world the authors thrive to analyse mechanisms and conditions of the informal activities and to detect parallels and differences of informal economic structures from different perspectives This book is valuable reading for researchers in geography sociology ethnography and in political science Boundaries, Communities and State-Making in West Africa Paul Nugent,2019-06-06 By examining three centuries of history this book shows how vital border regions have been in shaping states and social contracts Africa since Independence Paul Nugent,2012-06-13 An indispensable introductory textbook that provides students with a genuinely comparative study of the different trajectories and experiences of independent African states Paul Nugent explores a range of key concerns including the impact of HIV and AIDS the contagion of warfare and efforts at achieving national reconciliation both in the past and today This is an ideal core text for modules on Modern African History African Politics or Africa since Independence or a supplementary text for broader modules on African History which may be offered at the upper levels of an undergraduate History Politics or African Studies degree In addition it is a crucial resource for students who may be studying modern African history for the first time as part of a taught postgraduate degree in African History African Politics or African Studies New to this Edition Revised and updated throughout in light of the latest research Reflects recent developments on issues such as AIDS urbanization the secession of South Sudan questions of citizenship and the importance of transnational spaces This second edition now features photographs Unapproved Routes Peter Leary,2016-08-18 The delineation and emergence of the Irish border radically reshaped political and social realities across the entire island of Ireland For those who lived in close quarters with the border partition was also an intimate and personal occurrence profoundly implicated in everyday lives Otherwise mundane activities such as shopping visiting family or travelling to church were often complicated by customs restrictions security policies and even questions of nationhood and identity The border became an interface not just of two jurisdictions but also between the public political space of state territory and the private familiar spaces of daily life The effects of political disunity were combined and intertwined with a degree of unity of everyday social life that persisted and in some ways even flourished across if not always within the boundaries of both states On the border the state was visible to an uncommon degree as uniformed agents road blocks and built environment at precisely the same point as its limitations were uniquely exposed For those whose worlds continued to transcend the border the power and hegemony of either of those states and the social structures they conditioned could only ever be incomplete As a consequence border residents lived in circumstances that were burdened by inconvenience and imposition but also endowed with certain choices Influenced by microhistorical approaches Unapproved Routes uses a series of discrete histories of the Irish Boundary Commission the Foyle Fisheries dispute cockfighting tournaments regularly held on the border smuggling and local conflicts over cross border roads to explore how the border was experienced and incorporated into people s lives emerging at times as a powerfully revealing site of popular agency and action

The King of Drinks Dmitri Van Den Bersselaar, 2007 Using a focus on the trajectory of commoditisation of gin in West Africa this book investigates how imported goods acquire specific local meanings It shows that local consumers not foreign advertisers produced the importance of schnapps gin for African ritual

Dreamland Carly Goodman, 2023-03-13 In a world of border walls and obstacles to migration a lottery where winners can gain permanent residency in the United States sounds too good to be true Just as unlikely is the idea that the United States would make such visas available to foster diversity within a country where systemic racism endures But in 1990 the United States Diversity Visa Lottery was created to do just that Dreamland tells the surprising story of this unlikely government program and its role in American life as well as the global story of migration Historian Carly Goodman takes readers from Washington D C where proponents deployed a colorblind narrative about our nation of immigrants to secure visas for white immigrants to the African countries where it flourished and fostered dreams of going to America From the post office to the internet aspiring emigrants visa agents and others embraced the lottery and tried their luck in a time of austerity and limits Rising African immigration to the United States has enriched American life created opportunities for mobility and nourished imagined possibilities But the promise of the American dream has been threatened by the United States embrace of anti immigrant policies and persistent anti Black racism

Illicit Flows and Criminal Things Willem van Schendel, Itty Abraham, 2005-11-04 Illicit Flows and Criminal Things offers a new perspective on illegal transnational linkages international relations and the transnational The contributors argue for a nuanced approach that recognizes the difference between organized crime and the thousands of illicit acts that take place across national borders every day They distinguish between the illegal prohibited by law and the illicit socially perceived as unacceptable which are historically changeable and contested Detailed case studies of arms smuggling illegal transnational migration the global diamond trade borderland practices and the transnational consumption of drugs take us to Asia Africa Latin America Europe and North America They allow us to understand how states borders and the language of law enforcement produce criminality and how people and goods which are labeled illegal move across regulatory spaces

Border Contraband George T. Díaz, 2015-02-28 Winner Jim Parish Award for Documentation and Publication of Local and Regional History Webb County Heritage Foundation 2015 Present day smuggling across the U S Mexico border is a professional often violent criminal activity However it is only the latest chapter in a history of illicit business dealings that stretches back to 1848 when attempts by Mexico and the United States to tax commerce across the Rio Grande upset local trade and caused popular resentment Rather than acquiesce to what they regarded as arbitrary trade regulations borderlanders continued to cross goods and accepted many forms of smuggling as just In Border Contraband George T. Díaz provides the first history of the common yet little studied practice of smuggling across the U S Mexico border In Part I he examines the period between 1848 and 1910 when the United States and Mexico's trade concerns focused on tariff collection and on borderlanders attempts to avoid paying tariffs by smuggling Part II begins with the onset of the Mexican Revolution in 1910 when national customs and other security forces on the border shifted their emphasis to the interdiction of prohibited items particularly guns and drugs that threatened the state Díaz's pioneering research explains how greater restrictions have transformed smuggling from a low level mundane activity widely accepted and still routinely practiced into a highly profitable professional criminal enterprise

Spatial Appropriations in Modern Empires, 1820-1960 Didier Guignard, Iris Seri-Hersch, 2019-09-18 This book provides fresh insights into colonial and imperial histories by focusing on spatial appropriations Moving away from European notions of property appropriation encompasses the many ways in which social actors consider a space as their own This space may be physical or immaterial public or intimate lived or imagined In modern empires spatial appropriations amounted neither to a material and violent dispossession orchestrated by European or Japanese powers nor to an ongoing and unquestioned resistance by subaltern peoples They were rather sites of complex interactions in which the part of each actor owed as much to foreign domination as to other political social economic and environmental factors Cutting across common historiographical boundaries the chapters of this book bring to light the declination and conjugation of various forms of spatial appropriation in the modern imperial age 1820 1960 taking readers on a journey from Russia to China from the United States to South

America and from the Mediterranean world to Africa

Mobility, Transnationalism and Contemporary African Societies Tilo Grätz, 2010-01-08 The book is meant to shed new light on migratory processes pertinent to Sub Saharan Africa It starts out from the position that contemporary migratory movements can only be assessed by employing an appropriate theoretical framework which helps with conceptualising both localised strategies of migrants i.e. their modes of adaptation economic and social integration into host societies and the way they maintain relationships back home across places and nations i.e. translocal aspects of their mobility in terms of networking communication or economic as well as cultural transfers. In this respect the book contributes to the current debate on processes and effects of worldwide mobility addressing causes and effects and the various aspects of a culture of migration relevant for the African continent. Additionally the book tries to go beyond the usual structural discussions and reflections on mobility and migration by looking at actual migrant practices their social creativity the employment of flexible responses to often restrictive governmental policies. Finally the volume also discusses the often neglected issue of involuntary immobility as well as the significance of borders in both limiting mobility and in creating new borderline strategies to employ a notion by Ines Kohl with regard to migrants transnational strategies. The book addresses a wide readership in Human Sciences especially from African Studies Anthropology Sociology Geography and Political Sciences.
