M. Bounds,2002-03-01 The utmost possibilities of prayer have rarely been realized The promises of God are answered to those who truly pray His promises to answer to do and to give all things anything whatsoever and all things whatsoever are so very large so very great and so exceedingly broad that it almost staggers our faith and causes us to hesitate with astonishment All God asks is that when we pray we believe Him and trust that His promises in His Word are true The Folly of Prayer Matt Woodley,2010-02-04 Prayer can feel mysteriously difficult boringly perfunctory and frustratingly out of our control Often prayer brings us comfort but sometimes especially when there aren't easy resolutions or prayers go unanswered it intensifies and focuses our sense of longing pain and care And often God uses our times of darkness and desperation to awaken our hearts to the ache within us and the cries of those suffering around us Prayer is all about coming before God to face life head on with all its jagged edges of mystery joy longing and agony In fact says pastor Matt Woodley prayer is actually a real encounter with the untamable God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ and therefore our experience of it should reflect the power mystery and even risk of entering into relationship with the Lord of the universe In this book Woodley strips away all the religious speak and presuppositions we have about prayer distilling it to the essence of wholehearted engagement with the living God Exploring an earthy unadorned jargon free approach to prayer Woodley unpacks a host of fresh synonyms for God encounters including prayer as desperation invocation mystery astonishment groaning and even absence These marginal ways of praying compel us to engage marginal people the desperate the groaning the victimized and the ignored As we pray God will open our eyes to the pain of the world around us With stories from his own experience and biblical and historical examples Woodley gives fresh language to describe a life grounded in prayer that leads to compassion and service Stop Blaming God For the Work of the Enemy Troy J. Edwards,2016-03-29 And he shall speak great words against the most High and shall wear out the saints of the most High Dan 7 25 Satan is a slanderer who has deceived men into falsely blaming God for his own works Sadly the majority of Christians have bought into his deceptions and denigrate God's character in their sermons and Bible studies In this study we will examine several areas in which God is always getting the blame even from His own children and show the reader that Scripture actually points to Satan as the culprit Once we have learned this truth then we will learn how to walk in victory over all satanic circumstances
