Solvency II Ms Gabrielle O'Donovan,2014-08-28 As the deadline for Solvency II approaches affected entities will find implementing the required policies into everyday practices becomes a major focus The second edition of Solvency II Stakeholder Communications and Change explains how to prepare for and negate the associated risks Gabrielle O Donovan uses her research and the latest industry developments to demonstrate how to approach stakeholder communications and change management in a structured and disciplined way framed by the EU Directive s governance requirements She shows how to use a variety of tools and techniques to engage people with change and embed new ways of doing things She also reveals how to entrench risk consciousness into your culture helping you secure Solvency II approval and operate successfully in the Solvency II world Export Credit Insurance and Guarantees Z. Salcic,2014-04-03 The first practitioner handbook on export credit insurance and guarantees providing manufacturers exporters bankers and lawyers with a much needed resource The book contains descriptions and analyses of almost every type of export credit insurance and guarantee used in international trade with explanations about the risks inherent in each Issues in Agricultural Trade Policy Proceedings of the 2014 OECD Global Forum on Agriculture OECD,2015-05-05 This book brings together a collection of papers prepared for the Global Forum on Agriculture that took place at the OECD in December 2014 The European Banking Union Giuseppe Boccuzzi,2016-01-26 The 2008 financial crisis all but brought down the financial system and real economies of industrial countries The Banking Union took a broad approach to resolve the structural fragmentation and distortions in the European banking system which were major obstacles to a working single market for financial services This book examines the numerous changes happening to European legislations for the prevention and management of banking crises What emerges is a changing picture of regulations and institutions of goals tools and opinions public and private European and national all involved in the task The book focuses on the new framework for banking crisis management starting from the foundations of banking regulation and supervision It explores the institutional architecture of banking supervision and crisis management the powers of the authorities the tools for administrative actions the complexities of business and bankruptcy laws individual rights and their legal guarantees Export Credit Arrangements in Capital-Scarce Developing Countries Benedict Oramah, Richman Dzene,2025-11-14 Since the emergence of Export Credit Agencies ECAs in and around the 1900s they have underpinned the trade industrial and economic expansion of many economies of the world These institutions were at the heart of the industrial revolutions of advanced economies of the early 1900s and the emergence of many Asian economies such as China and India In this book we highlight the evolution of ECAs globally and in developing countries outlining the significant changes that have occurred and present case studies of selected ECAs to elicit differential experiences and lessons which will constitute the guiding principles for the revival or creation of ECAs in developing countries These principles are particularly imperative as governments in Africa and elsewhere have either most recently established or are contemplating the establishment of ECAs

Research Handbook on International Insurance Law and Regulation Julian Burling, Julian M. Burling, Kevin Lazarus, 2012 Global insurance and its rapidly evolving law and regulation demands international research To this aim the Handbook offers a truly international collection of essays Highly renowned experts analyze the key topics currently under international discussion and development While representing a diversity of national jurisdictions the focus lies on the largest insurance jurisdictions USA UK and Germany but newly important jurisdictions like Brazil and China are considered as well a most valuable and important contribution to international insurance law literature Manfred Wandt Director of the Insurance Law Institute Goethe University Frankfurt Germany This Research Handbook is published at an opportune time A global review of insurance law and regulation is underway Much reform happens locally with little reference to developments elsewhere and this Research Handbook brings the strands together It is a comprehensive review by distinguished authors from different backgrounds including both leading academics and practitioners They consider the definitions of insurance its economic underpinnings comparative law and regulations actual and proposed reforms the effects on underwriting and claims and how insurance is studied and taught Good laws and regulation benefit the market and its customers Bad laws and regulation do the opposite This book is required reading for all involved in the reform process David Hertzell Law Commissioner Globalisation has had no greater impact in the commercial world than on insurance the law which governs it and the risks it seeks to address Those who inspired this publication and the contributing authors are to be thanked for providing such a necessary and useful reference source It covers so much of what insurance professionals need to be aware of in the insurance law world of the twenty first century Michael Gill President of the International Insurance Law Association Given its economic importance insurance is a field that has been underserved as an area of academic study This detailed book provides much needed coverage of insurance law and regulation in its international context Produced in association with Lloyd's it draws on the expertise both of academics and practising lawyers Containing 30 comprehensive chapters it provides in depth studies on key areas such as the role of international organisations the judicial interpretation of insurance contract clauses and transnational regulatory recognition It also provides thorough introductions to important jurisdictions including the EU US and Japan as well as focusing on newly emerging economies such as China and Brazil Specialist topics covered include regulation by and of Lloyd's the tort of bad faith in the US microinsurance and takaful insurance This well documented resource will appeal to academics and students in insurance law and regulation policymakers and private practice lawyers The book also aims to stretch the imagination of anyone with an interest in insurance law and regulation providing detailed analysis and avenues for further investigation

Coherence of the European Union Trade Policy with Its Non-Trade Objectives Miriam Manchin, Laura Puccio, Aydin B. Yildirim, 2023-11-02 Bringing together leading experts in trade law and policy this volume investigates the coherence between the European Union's trade policy and its non trade objectives Adopting an interdisciplinary approach it highlights previously unaddressed dimensions of EU policy objectives and outcomes With a range of illustrative case studies the contributions offer in depth analysis while making key issues and policy conclusions accessible to readers without specialist training Pushing the frontiers of research on trade investment and non trade issues the volume advances debates concerning the reform of the international trade regime and the EU s adoption of a new trade policy Bolstered by a diverse range of contributors and perspectives this expansive collection recognises the achievements of the current EU trade policy assesses its limits and puts forth actionable recommendations for how it may be improved
