Am I A Murderer? Cael Perechodnik, 2019-03-13 In this moving memoir a young Polish Jew chronicles his life under the Nazis In the vain hope of protecting himself and his family Cael Perechodnik made the wrenching decision to become a ghetto policeman in a small town near Warsaw The true tragedy of his choice becomes clear when during the Aktion he must witness his own wife and child forced to board a train to the Treblinka extermination camp Filled with loathing for the Germans the Poles his Jewish brethren and himself Perechodnik fled the ghetto to shelter with a Polish woman in Warsaw In the course of 105 terror filled days in hiding he poured out his poignant story Written while Nazi boots pounded the streets of the neighborhood and while his tortured memory was painfully fresh

this memoir has a rare immediacy and raw power Shortly before his death in 1944 he entrusted the precious diary to a Polish friend The document was eventually deposited in the Yad Vashem Archives in Jerusalem Left nearly forgotten for half a century it was finally published in Poland in 1993 We owe a great debt to historian Frank Fox for bringing us this sensitive translation which reminds us anew of the power and truth of historical memory The Professional Subroto

Bagchi,2011-06-30 A manifesto on what it takes to be a true professional in the modern world By common definition a professional is anyone who possesses the skills and knowledge necessary for a career whether as a surgeon a software engineer or a plumber But according to Subroto Bagchi our increasingly global marketplace demands more In a world where the foolish selfish and unethical decisions of a few have affected the lives of millions The Professional urges readers to act responsibly and reexamine business as usual By exploring a variety of professional dilemmas across many industries Bagchi defines the qualities of true professionals and the attributes that separate them from the merely competent These include Suffer no false attractions It s always tempting to take the path of least resistance but true professionals can separate the genuine from the phony Know when to say no True professionals are not afraid to say no to things that are not worth their time their energy or their creativity Take the long view True professionals understand that every action decision and relationship no matter how small can have a lasting impact The Holy Bible ...
